Improving Psychiatric Care for Older People Claire Hilton, 2017-09-15 This book is open access under a CC BY 4.0 license. This book tells the story of Barbara Robb and her pressure group Aid for the Elderly in Government Institutions AEGIS. In 1965 Barbara visited 73 year old Amy Gibbs in a dilapidated and overcrowded National Health Service psychiatric hospital back ward. She was so appalled by the low standards that she set out to make improvements. Barbara's book Sans Everything is a case to answer was publicly discredited by a complacent and self-righteous Ministry of Health. However inspired by her work staff in other hospitals, whistle blew about events they witnessed which corroborated her allegations. Barbara influenced government policy to improve psychiatric care and health service complaints procedures and to establish a hospitals inspectorate and ombudsman. The book will appeal to campaigners, health and social care staff and others working with older people and those with an interest in policy development in England. The 1960s women's history and the history of psychiatry and nursing. Jino and Izare are abandoned to the camp and Izare silently sacrifices himself to keep his promise to Maria that he'd look after Jino. But Jino escapes the soul-killing cruelty of the camp. With Jino in his heart, Izare remains to become an ultimate weapon. The boy's lives and the secrets of the mysterious Maria gradually unravel in this epic sci-fi drama.
