The Improvement of Reading Constance Mary McCullough, Ruth May Strang, Arthur Edwin Traxler, 1961 Policies and Practices in the Improvement of Reading John James DeBoer, John J. DeBoer, 1943 Improving Reading in Middle and Secondary Schools Lawrence E. Hafner, 1974 Improving Reading in the Junior High School Arno Joseph Jewett, 1957 How to Increase Your Reading Speed G. C. Ahuja, Pramila Ahuja, 1995 The Improvement of Reading Arthur Irving Gates, 1947 Problems in the Improvement of Reading Constance Mary McCullough, Ruth May Strang, 1955 Using Peer Tutoring to Improve Reading Skills Keith Topping, David Duran, Hilde Van Keer, 2015-10-08

Using Peer Tutoring to Improve Reading Skills is a very practical guide offering a straightforward framework and easy to implement strategies to help teachers help pupils progress in reading. A succinct introduction it shows how schools can make positive use of differences between pupils and turn them into effective learning opportunities. Outlining the evidence base supporting peer tutoring approaches it explores the components of the reading process and explains how peer tutoring in reading can be used with any method of teaching reading. Core topics covered include Planning and implementing peer tutoring, Getting your school on board, How to structure effective interaction, Training peer tutors and tutees, Paired Reading, cross ability approaches, One Book for Two, fostering fluency, reading comprehension and motivation, Reading in Pairs, cross and same year tutoring, Supporting struggling readers, Involving families in peer tutoring, Evaluation and feedback. Illustrated throughout with practical examples from diverse schools across Europe. Using Peer Tutoring to Improve Reading Skills is an essential introduction offering easy to use guidelines that will support teachers in primary and secondary schools as they enhance pupil motivation and improve reading standards. The Improvement of Reading in Secondary Schools Texas. State Department of Education, 1953 Resources in Education , 1994-11 Improving Literacy in the Primary School Edward Conrad Wragg, 1998. Based on one of the largest studies ever undertaken on what primary schools do to improve literacy this book reports the findings of Professor Ted Wragg and his research team. The Learning Communities Guide to Improving Reading Instruction Valerie Hastings Gregory, Jan Rozzelle-Nikas, 2005. This is an important book. The themes of attending to individual needs, providing assessment driven instruction and creating long term focused professional development plans are solid and consistent throughout. Gay Ivey, Graduate Program Coordinator, Reading Education Program, James Madison University. This book does a wonderful job of bridging the chasm that often exists between the separate worlds of higher education and K 12 educators. It applies powerful research findings and nontechnical jargon free advice for classroom teachers. From the Foreword by Richard DuFour and Rebecca DuFour. Create professional learning communities to improve reading instruction and students performance. After observing over 300 classrooms authors Valerie Hastings Gregory and M Jan Rozzelle provide the perfect framework, knowledge and tools necessary to help create a community of literacy coaches, leaders and teachers to improve reading across schools. Demonstrating the critical link between adult learning and student learning that makes professional learning communities our best hope for improving reading and comprehension for today's students. This rich developmental resource provides solid information, powerful research findings, specific pragmatic and proven strategies that teachers can apply immediately in the classroom. Key features and benefits for implementation include: Reflective survey of look fors to identify strengths and weaknesses; How to and when to guidelines for strategies; A learning communities model for professional development for reading instruction providing the groundwork for effective and lasting improvement; Valuable tables, charts, planning guides and reproducibles to facilitate discussion, reflection and goal setting. The Learning Communities Guide to Improving Reading Instruction will help educators identify and apply new approaches, improve and add to their instructional repertoire and ultimately benefit their students' reading performance so no child or teacher is left behind. Olshtain, 1996 Improving Reading Comprehension Through Metacognitive Reading Strategies Instruction Kouider Mokhtari, 2017 This book addresses the need to help all students including English learners improve their ability to read with understanding so that they can succeed not just in their language and literacy classes but also in their subject area classrooms. The book brings together a group of experts representing the fields of first and second language reading whose chapters contribute in different yet complementary ways to the goal of this book: Improve students' reading for understanding across languages with metacognitive awareness and use of reading strategies instruction. Improving Reading in Every Class Ellen Lamar Thomas, H. Alan Robinson, 1982 The second edition of Race and Ethnicity: The United States and the World continues its legacy as an introductory survey text covering the basic concepts and research of theoretical issues and empirical studies of race and ethnicity in the U.S. and throughout the world. Through state-of-the-art chapters, Dr. Scupin introduces the concepts of race, the fallacies of scientific racism, and theoretical perspectives on ethnicity followed by fourteen chapters that detail the empirical findings of anthropologists on race and ethnicity in the U.S. and the world. Engagement in the 21st Century Clarence Ng, Brendan Bartlett, 2017-05-31 This book presents cutting edge research findings in areas critical to advancing reading research in the 21st century context including new literacies, reading motivation, strategy instruction and reading intervention studies. While students' reading performance is currently receiving unprecedented attention, there is a lack of research that adopts an international perspective and draws on research expertise from different parts of the world to present a concerted effort discussing key research models and findings on how to improve reading education Addressing this gap in the literature the book also responds to the challenge of promoting higher levels of literacy and supporting and developing readers who can enjoy and critique texts of every genre Developing Reading Comprehension Paula J. Clarke, Emma Truelove, Charles Hulme, Margaret J. Snowling, 2013-12-04

Developing Reading Comprehension In recent years the debate about teaching young children to read has tended to focus upon equipping them with the crucially important knowledge and skills they need to read words accurately in and out of context that is to say teaching them how the alphabet works for reading and spelling While such knowledge and skills are essential more is required for children to become literate fluent readers who understand what they read In short the goal of reading is comprehension This book scrupulously examines the obstacles to reading comprehension and exemplifies what can be done to help children overcome them It is an important and timely contribution to securing high quality teaching of the range of attributes children need to become fully fledged readers Sir Jim Rose CBE The studies by Professors Charles Hulme and Maggie Snowling and their team over two decades based around the Reading Intervention Programme are the most sustained comprehensive and rigorous research series on reading yet conducted in the UK Their increasing focus on children who experience the most difficulty in reading is exactly where attention should be directed This volume summarises the team's achievements to date and is most eagerly awaited Greg Brooks Emeritus Professor of Education University of Sheffield Member of European High Level Group of Experts on Literacy

Developing Reading Comprehension presents a landmark study from the top research team in the UK on how to improve reading comprehension It's an exemplary masters level textbook written with undergraduate level lucidity and approachability Colin Harrison Emeritus Professor of Literacy Studies in Education University of Nottingham A significant minority of children aged 7-11 despite being able to read fluently and accurately have difficulty extracting meaning from text This detailed guide offers three evidence based intervention programmes drawn from the cutting edge of educational psychology for improving the reading skills of children in this group It includes a definitive introduction to the characteristics of the poor comprehender profile and explains how to monitor and assess students' experiences and learning outcomes With invaluable strategies for teachers psychologists and special educational needs coordinators the book will help professionals to support learners in their efforts to explore the full richness of language and to read with real understanding
