

FEMA and Personally Identifiable Information (PII)

February 19, 2025

Some Members of Congress have expressed concern about the Department of Government Efficiency's (DOGE's) access to the Federal Emergency Management Agency's (FEMA's) program data, some of which includes the personally identifiable information \(PII\) of disaster survivors and other individuals receiving services. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) Secretary Kristi Noem is reported as saying the President authorized DOGE, which is not a DHS component, to access DHS's network; media outlets have reported on DOGE's access to FEMA data.

This Insight discusses the PII collected by FEMA, including what PII is collected and how it is used, how such PII is stored and accessed, and potential data privacy concerns. CRS Report R48423, Access to Agency Data and Information Technology: Frequently Asked Questions, provides additional information on Privacy Impact Assessments and when information can be shared without an individual's written consent.

Background

FEMA requires certain personal information to be collected from individuals in order to determine eligibility for federal assistance. This includes information collected from disaster survivors applying for FEMA assistance through the Individuals and Households Program \(IHP\), which provides financial and direct assistance to address disaster-caused housing and other needs. It also includes information collected from nonfederal entities on the clients they provided supportive services to through the Shelter and Services Program \(SSP\), which funds the provision of food, shelter, transportation, and supportive services to noncitizen migrants encountered by and released from DHS custody. PII considerations related to these two programs are addressed below.

What PII does FEMA collect?

IHP applicants must meet general eligibility requirements in order to receive IHP assistance. Requirements include that they must be a U.S. citizen, noncitizen national, or "qualified alien" (or the parent or guardian of such a minor), and FEMA must verify their identity. As part of the IHP application
