

owner's guide and data

This "Owner's Guide and Data" booklet includes important information which will be of interest to you, as the owner of this GMC Truck. The data includes brief specifications, capacities, and other service information on your specific truck.

Current maintenance procedures and the know-how which are important to the successful operation of your truck are in the hands of your GMC Dealer. All GMC Dealer organizations have the facilities and knowledge to give you the GMC Service that your truck deserves.

Operation from the stand-point of the driver is completely and pictorially covered in the accompanying booklet "Operating Your New GMC Truck". From this booklet, the driver of your truck can obtain driving tips which add to his skill and contribute to economical, long-life hauling for your business.

WARRANTY

The Manufacturer's Warranty on your truck, states the responsibility of the manufacturer. Have your GMC Dealer explain this Warranty as well as the separate tire or Delco battery warranty.
