Inside Today's Elementary Schools James J. Dillon, 2019-08-08 This book takes readers on a tour of a day in the life of a public elementary school in an effort to give parents and other stakeholders a sense of the realities of the classroom The tour reveals ten worrisome things about today's schools and considers what to do about them Dillon emphasizes the need for future schools to be places filled with adventure and high purpose with classrooms small enough to waste only a minimum of time They should be free from stifling levels of bureaucracy supervised by rotating teacher administrators rather than career managers The book asserts that schools should be staffed by scholarly and engaged teaching professionals dedicated to helping students live a healthy adult life in a democracy rather than imposing a one size fits all furiously assessed college prep curriculum on everyone In all Dillon argues schools should be places with classrooms of narrow ability ranges dedicated to teaching a coherent curriculum all in a context of full buy in and support from students families Let's go inside today's elementary schools Books in Print Supplement, 2002 Atlanta Magazine, 2008-04 Atlanta magazine's editorial mission is to engage our community through provocative writing authoritative reporting and superlative design that illuminate the people the issues the trends and the events that define our city The magazine informs challenges and entertains our readers each month while helping them make intelligent choices not only about what they do and where they go but what they think about matters of importance to the community and the region Atlanta magazine's editorial mission is to engage our community through provocative writing authoritative reporting and superlative design that illuminate the people the issues the trends and the events that define our city The magazine informs challenges and entertains our readers each month while helping them make intelligent choices not only about what they do and where they go but what they think about matters of importance to the community and the region Linguistics and Language Behavior Abstracts, 2006 Morgan Love Series Stephanie Perry Moore, 2011-05-16 This set includes all five books of the Morgan Love Series A Attitude Speak Up Something Special Right Thing and No Fear The Morgan Love Series is a chapter book series written for girls 7-9 years old The series provides moral lessons that will aid in character development It will also help young girls develop their vocabulary english and math skills as they read through the stories and complete the entertaining and educational exercises provided at the end of each chapter and in the back of the book
