France Since Nineteen Eighteen:

Delicious Decadence ?The Rediscovery of French Eighteenth-Century Painting in the Nineteenth Century

Monica Preti, 2017-07-05 The history of collecting is a topic of central importance to many academic disciplines and shows no sign of abating in popularity As such scholars will welcome this collection of essays by internationally recognised experts that gathers together for the first time varied and stimulating perspectives on the nineteenth century collector and art market for French eighteenth century art and ultimately the formation of collections that form part of such august institutions as the Louvre and the National Gallery in London The book is the culmination of a successful conference organised jointly between the Wallace Collection and the Louvre on the occasion of the acclaimed exhibition Masterpieces from the Louvre The Collection of Louis La Caze Exploring themes relating to collectors critics markets and museums from France England and Germany the volume will appeal to academics and students alike and become essential reading on any course that deals with the history of collecting the history of taste and the nineteenth century craze for the perceived douceur de vivre of eighteenth century France It also provides valuable insight into the history of the art markets and the formation of museums

Femininity and Masculinity in Eighteenth-century Art and Culture Gillian Perry, 1994 Focusing on the visual arts and written texts this book explores the nature of femininity and masculinity in 18th century Britain and France The activities and collective conditions of women as producers of art and culture are investigated together with analysis of representation and the ways in which it might be gendered This illustrated book should make an important contribution to debates on representation constructions of sexuality and women as producers Revolutionary Love in Eighteenth- and Early Nineteenth-Century France Allan H. Pasco, 2016-12-05 In this innovative study the author carves out a new field a sociology of literature in which he offers insightful commentary about the nexus of literature and society Calling on history sociology and psychology as well as literature as points of reference Allan Pasco examines the conceptual shift in the ideal of love in eighteenth century France Pasco explores the radical though gradual changes that occurred during the Enlightenment with respect to how the emotion of love was viewed Earlier love had been subordinate to the demands of family king and deity passion was dangerous and to be avoided But over time individual happiness became the greatest good and passion the measure of love Authors as diverse as Marivaux Marmontel Rousseau Bachelard d Arnaud Pigault Lebrun and Madame de Staël make it clear that the ideal of rapturous love did not live up to its billing it did not last and it brought destructive fantasies an epidemic of disease the scourge of divorce and considerable anguish Still as Pasco points out passion became and remained the ideal and the Romantics were left to plumb its nature Europe in the Eighteenth Century George F. E. Rudé, 1985 Europe in the Eighteenth Century is a social history of Europe in all its aspects economic political diplomatic military colonial expansionist Crisply and succinctly written it describes Europe not through a history of individual countries but in a common context during the three quarters of a century between the death of Louis XIV and the industrial revolution in England and the social and political revolution in France It presents the development of government institutions cities economies wars and the circulation of ideas in terms of social pressures and needs and stresses growth interrelationships and conflict of social classes as agents of historical change paying particular attention to the role of popular as well as upper and middle class protest as a factor in that change France in the Nineteenth Century, 1830-1890 Elizabeth Wormeley Latimer,1895 Historical Philosophy in France and French Belgium and Switzerland Robert Flint,1894 The Nineteenth Century ,1892 Nineteenth Century and After ,1892 A history of European thought in the nineteenth century John Theodore Merz,1896 Europe in the Nineteenth Century Harry Pratt Judson,1894 The Nineteenth Century and After ,1888 Nineteenth century Israel Smith Clare,1893 Evocations of the Eighteenth Century in French Poetry, 1800-1869 Maxine G.
