

2020 VCE Physical Education examination report

General comments

In 2020 the Victorian Curriculum and Assessment Authority (VCAA) produced an examination based on the VCE Physical Education Adjusted Study Design for 2020 only. The examination provided students with the opportunity to demonstrate and apply a range of knowledge and skills.

Students who expressed knowledge clearly and concisely, connecting it – as directed in the question – to specific situations scored highly. This was evident in the two extended responses for energy system interplay Questions 6a and 10a. While students demonstrated a general understanding of how energy system interplay takes place, many were not able to then reference the particular scenarios shown in the question stem.

Students able to use correct command words when answering questions also scored highly. Students were required to critique or analyse a training program on two occasions (Questions 6c, and 7c). Students should consider how they construct their responses to these types of questions. They should read the questions carefully to ensure they respond to everything the question is asking. An exposure to practical classes was also advantageous in a number of questions in the examination.

Students demonstrated a basic understanding of the biomechanical and skill acquisition principles required. Many students did not fully show an understanding of the function of third-class levers in the body. Students should also consolidate their understanding of constraints-based coaching as opposed to direct instruction. This may lend itself well to practical class exposure on these methods.

Finally, it is important that students be aware of appropriate nutritional recovery strategies and the reason for the use of carbohydrates and proteins in the recovery period.

The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time.
