2005 Suburban Fuse Box:

Impossible City Simon Kuper,2024-06-04 An entertaining and openhearted tale of a na f eventually getting to understand a complex glittering beautiful and often cruel society at least a little When Simon Kuper left London for Paris in his early thirties he wasn t planning to make a permanent move Paris however had other plans Kuper has grown middle aged there eaten the croissants seen his American wife through life threatening cancer taken his children to countless football matches on freezing Saturday mornings in the city s notorious banlieues and in 2015 lived through two terrorist attacks on their neighborhood Over two decades of becoming something of a cantankerous Parisian himself Kuper has watched the city change This century it has globalized gentrified and been shocked into realizing its role as the crucible of civilizational conflict Sometimes it s a multicultural paradise and sometimes it isn t This decade Parisians have lived through a sequence of shocks terrorist attacks record floods and heatwaves the burning of Notre Dame the storming of the city by gilets jaunes and then the pandemic Now as the Olympics come to town France is busy executing the Grand Paris project the most serious attempt yet to knit together the bejewelled city with its neglected suburbs This is a captivating memoir of the Paris of today without the Parisian clich s

Catalog No. 33 Line Material Company,1933 Multimedia Explorations in Urban Policy and Planning Leonie Sandercock,Giovanni Attili,2010-04-10

The book is a collection of essays exploring the potential of multimedia to enrich and transform the planning field By multimedia the authors refer to a broad range of new information and communication technologies from film and video to digital ethnography and the internet which are opening up new possibilities in planning practices processes pedagogy and research The authors document the ways in which these ICTs can expand the language of planning and the creativity of planners can evoke the lived experience the spirit memories desires of our 21st century mongrel cities by engaging with stories and storytelling and can democratise planning practices The text is epistemologically radical in presenting an argument for the importance of multiple languages ways of knowing in the planning field and making the connection between this epistemology and the almost infinite potential of Multimedia to provide varied tools to accomplish this transformation displacing the supremacy of the rational linear and hierarchical with more open playful and imaginative approaches Each of the authors brings practical experience with different forms of Multimedia use and reflects on the different potentialities offered by Multimedia for critical intervention in urban and regional issues and the power dynamics embedded in such interventions
