for the guidance of teachers

9707 BUSINESS STUDIES

9707/11

Paper 1 (Short Answer/Essay), maximum raw mark 40

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes must be read in conjunction with the question papers and the report on the examination.

- Cambridge will not enter into discussions or correspondence in connection with these mark schemes.

Cambridge is publishing the mark schemes for the May/June 2011 question papers for most IGCSE, GCE Advanced Level and Advanced Subsidiary Level syllabuses and some Ordinary Level syllabuses.

Moving Health Sovereignty in Africa Andrew F. Cooper, Hany Besada, 2016-04-15 Today's era of intense globalization has unleashed dynamic movements of people, pathogens and pests that overwhelm the static territorial jurisdictions on which the governance provided by sovereign states and their formal intergovernmental institutions is based. This world of movement calls for new ideas and institutions to govern people's health, above all in Africa where the movements and health challenges are the most acute. This book insightfully explores these challenges in ways that put the perspectives of Africans themselves at centre stage. It begins with the long central and still compelling African health challenge of combating the pandemic of HIV/AIDS. It then examines the global governance responses by the major multilateral organizations of the World Bank and the World Trade Organization and the newer informal flexible democratically oriented ones of the Group of Eight. It also addresses the compounding health challenge created by climate change to assess both its intensifying impact on Africa and how all international institutions have largely failed to link climate and health in their governance response. It concludes with several recommendations about the innovative ideas and institutions that offer a way to closing the great global governance gaps and thus improving Africans' health and that of citizens beyond. Afghanistan after the Western

Drawdown Rohan Gunaratna, Douglas Woodall, 2015-01-26 Following the Western drawdown in Afghanistan, the global and regional security landscapes will change dramatically. Al Qaeda, the Afghan Taliban and their allies who are still posing a threat to the US-led coalition are poised to return to Afghanistan. Further, the mujahidin in the tribal areas of Pakistan may once again draw the support of pools of fighters. Scholars from the countries discussed use their own on-the-ground experience to explain the post-2014 key strategic decisions that face policymakers in Afghanistan, the United States and the region. These diverse perspectives help grasp issues necessary to assess the strategic environment. The book provides a roadmap for the strategy outlined along with predictive analysis of what is likely to happen. Particular attention is paid to the US-Afghanistan Bilateral Security Agreement as well as reconciliation talks with the Afghan Taliban. Overall, the looming increases in global terrorism that may result warrant a continued focus and resource allocation to the Afghanistan-Pakistan region. The Detour, 1979 Intimate Relationships across the Lifespan Abdul Khaleque, 2018-02-08 This comprehensive research-based book is a next-generation study of intimate relationships that explores implications for health and well-being across cultures, genders and traditional as well as non-traditional relationships. This book fills the need for a contemporary analysis of intimate relationships and their implications for people's health, well-being and quality of life. It covers topics not ordinarily included in textbooks on this topic in non traditional areas such as LGBT relationships The text also addresses intervention strategies for relationship problems and offers tools and techniques for assessing intimate relationships Chapters are organized to present information about the origin formation development enrichment and maintenance of intimate relationships in a way that allows readers to build upon what they have learned The text provides integrated and evidence based information on almost all aspects of intimate relationships and will be of interest to undergraduate and graduate students as well as faculty in family studies psychology and other social sciences Moreover counselors clinicians and therapists working on conflict violence abuse maladjustment depression deterioration dissolution reconstruction and enrichment of marital and non marital intimate relationships will find this text valuable for their practice
