Autobiography of an Ex-white Man Robert Paul Wolff, 2005 Autobiography of an Ex White Man is an intensely personal meditation on the nature of America by a White Philosopher who joined a Black Studies Department and found his understanding of the world transformed by the experience The book begins with an autobiographical narrative of the events leading up to Wolff's transfer from a Philosophy Department to the W E B Du Bois Department of Afro American Studies at the University of Massachusetts and his experiences in the Department with his new colleagues all of whom had come to Academia from the Civil Rights Movement of the 1960s Wolff discovered that the apparently simple act of moving across campus to a new Department in a new building worked a startling change in the way he saw himself his university and his country Reading as widely as possible to bring himself up to speed in his new field of academic responsibility Wolff realized after a bit that his picture of American history and culture was undergoing an irreversible metamorphosis America he realized has from its inception been a land both of Freedom and of Bondage Freedom for the few and then for those who are White Bondage at first for the many and then for those who are not White Slavery is thus not an aberration an accident a Peculiar Institution it is the essence and core of the American experience Wolff's optimistic outlook leads him to express the hope that our acknowledging the realities of America's racial history and present will begin to tear down the formidable barrier to change He sees this refashioning of the American story as a first step toward the crafting of a truly liberatory project Robert Paul Wolff is Professor of Afro American Studies at the University of Massachusetts Amherst and the author of numerous books including Introductory Philosophy and In Defense of Anarchism

The Missionary Movement in American Catholic History Angelyn Dries, 1998 This is the first general history of American Catholic mission treating not only its institutions but its human and religious aspects as well It shows how the church in the United States not only sent thousands of men and women overseas but also evangelized internally and incorporated millions of immigrants Angelyn Dries offers a thoroughly researched and nuanced view of this history and its profound influence on the emergence of a distinctive American Catholic identity The Missionary Movement in American Catholic History opens with Iberian and French mission efforts on the continent prior to 1776 moves to the situation within the English colonies and the fledgling United States and then on to mission beyond U S borders from 1820 Dries continually places the movement in context discussing such issues as Nativism the frontier experience of whites the fate of Amerindians the trans Atlantic slave trade and the growth of African American Catholicism From 1898 to 1980 Dries considers the experiences of the two World Wars the rapid decolonizations of Africa and Asia and the U S's increasingly anti Communist political stance With the advent of Vatican II Dries shows American Catholics entered more deeply into conscious dialogue with their Protestant brothers and sisters as well as with Jews By 1980 this public dialogue included non believers and followers of the world religions in a broadening ecumenism Dries concludes with issues facing the missionary movement beyond 1980 including formation and gender issues the understanding and practice of mission in the future and the unfinished agenda of the U S Bishops pastoral To the Ends of the Earth The Missionary Movement in American Catholic History is a remarkably comprehensive work must reading for missionaries and church historians    CD-ROMs in Print ,2000    Bulletin Boston Public Library,1883 Quarterly accession lists beginning with Apr 1893 the bulletin is limited to subject lists special bibliographies and reprints or facsimiles of original documents prints and manuscripts in the Library the accessions being recorded in a separate classified list Jan Apr 1893 a weekly bulletin Apr 1893 Apr 1894 as well as a classified list of later accessions in the last number published of the bulletin itself Jan 1896    Bulletin of the Public Library of the City of Boston Boston Public Library,1882    Books ,1959-02
