

1. The graph shows the speed of a car as it drives along a road. The road is straight. How long does it take the car to reach the greatest speed?

- 0 to 2
- 2 to 4
- 4 to 6
- 6 to 8

2. How does increasing the length of an inclined plane affect the effort force needed to move an object?

- Longer planes increase the effort needed.
- Shorter planes decrease the effort needed.
- Changing the length without effect the effort needed to move an object.
- The longer the ramp the less effort needed to move the object.

3. When pushed a 0.01 kg rubber ball with a force of 0.25 N and a 0.02 kg rubber ball with a force of 0.25 N, the 0.01 kg ball has the greatest acceleration?

- Yes
- No
- Their accelerations were the same
- None of the above

4. When the five balls are released, the white ball has the same mass as the other balls. When the white ball strikes the gray balls, the white ball stops moving. The white ball stops moving because:

- The white ball exerts a force on the gray ball, and the gray ball exerts an equal and opposite force on the white ball.
- The white ball exerts the force of friction on the gray ball, but the gray ball exerts an equal and opposite force on the white ball.
- The white ball exerts a force on the gray ball that is equal and opposite to the force of friction exerted on the white ball.
- An external force stops the white ball.

5. What isn't the first law is also called the law of inertia. Which of these is most correctly explained by this law?

- A rocket is propelled upward from rest by gases pushing downward on it.
- When a roller coaster car suddenly stops, it makes the passengers feel as if they're moving forward into their seats.
- A small chair is easier to move than a refrigerator because the chair has a smaller mass.
- If you throw a 10 kg ball and a 2 kg ball with the same amount of force, the 2 kg ball will travel faster.

6. Because the table provided, which of the objects is producing the greatest force?

Object	Mass	Acceleration
Soccer ball	0.40 kg	5 m/s ²
Tennis ball	0.005 kg	1000 m/s ²
Marble	0.01 kg	1000 m/s ²

- Soccer ball
- Tennis ball
- Marble
- They all produce equal forces

7. How much force (N) is required to move a 2.0 kg object with an acceleration of 10 m/s²? Round and include the proper answer.

20 N	200 N	2000 N	20000 N	200000 N
------	-------	--------	---------	----------

8. Examine the graph provided. The graph shows the distance traveled by a ball over a continuous span of time. What happened to the ball after 4 seconds?

- The ball traveled at a constant speed.
- The ball was accelerating.
- The ball changed direction.
- The ball stopped moving.

9. Which of the following examples BEST accurately describes an object that is accelerating?

- A ball sitting on the floor
- A car moving at 10 miles per hour
- A car moving 5 miles per hour north, then speeding up to 10 miles per hour
- A ball moving 10 m/s at 45 degrees

10. What is the density of a substance that has a mass of 4.0 g and a volume of 10 ml?

- 0.4 g/ml
- 4 g/ml
- 4.0 g/ml
- 1000 g/ml

Wong, 1999 This book examines the fundamental role of politics in funding our public schools and fills a conceptual imbalance in the current literature in school finance and educational policy Unlike those who are primarily concerned about cost efficiency Kenneth Wong specifies how resources are allocated for what purposes at different levels of the government In contrast to those who focus on litigation as a way to reduce funding gaps he underscores institutional stalemate and the lack of political will to act as important factors that affect legislative deadlock in school finance reform Wong defines how politics has sustained various types of rules that affect the allocation of resources at the federal state and local level While these rules have been remarkably stable over the past twenty to thirty years they have often worked at cross purposes by fragmenting policy and constraining the education process at schools with the greatest needs Wong s examination is shaped by several questions How do these rules come about What role does politics play in retention of the rules Do the federal state and local governments espouse different policies In what ways do these policies operate at cross purposes How do they affect educational opportunities Do the policies cohere in ways that promote better and more equitable student outcomes Wong concludes that the five types of entrenched rules for resource allocation are rooted in existing governance arrangements and seemingly impervious to partisan shifts interest group pressures and constitutional challenge And because these rules foster policy fragmentation and embody initiatives out of step with the performance based reform agenda of the 1990s the outlook for positive change in public education is uncertain unless fairly radical approaches are employed Wong also analyzes four allocative reform models two based on the assumption that existing political structures are unlikely to change and two that seek to empower actors at the school level The two models for systemwide restructuring aimed at intergovernmental coordination and or integrated governance would seek to clarify responsibilities for public education among federal state and local authorities above all integrating political and educational accountability The other two models identified by Wong shift control from state and district to the school one based on local leadership and the other based on market forces In discussing the guiding principles of the four models Wong takes care to identify both the potential and limitations of each Written with a broad policy audience in mind Wong s book should appeal to professionals interested in the politics of educational reform and to teachers of courses dealing with educational policy and administration and intergovernmental relations The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1920 Bell & Howell Newspaper Index to the Los Angeles Times ,1985 SDEA Journal South Dakota Educational Association,1941
