Appalachian Coal Mining Documentary:

After Coal Tom Hansell, 2018 What happens when fossil fuels run out How do communities and cultures survive Central Appalachia and south Wales were built to extract coal and faced with coal's decline both regions have experienced economic depression labor unrest and out migration After Coal focuses on coalfield residents who chose not to leave but instead remained in their communities and worked to build a diverse and sustainable economy It tells the story of four decades of exchange between two mining communities on opposite sides of the Atlantic and profiles individuals and organizations that are undertaking the critical work of regeneration The stories in this book are told through interviews and photographs collected during the making of After Coal a documentary film produced by the Center for Appalachian Studies at Appalachian State University and directed by Tom Hansell Considering resonances between Appalachia and Wales in the realms of labor environment and movements for social justice the book approaches the transition from coal as an opportunity for marginalized people around the world to work toward safer and more egalitarian futures

Appalachians All Mark T. Banker, 2026-10-25 Appalachians All intertwines the histories of three communities Knoxville with its urban life Cades Cove with its farming logging and tourism legacies and the Clearfork Valley with its coal production to tell a larger story of East Tennessee and its inhabitants Combining a perceptive account of how industrialization shaped developments in these communities since the Civil War with a heartfelt reflection on Appalachian identity Mark Banker provides a significant new regional history with implications that extend well beyond East Tennessee's boundaries Writing with the keen eye of a native son who left the area only to return years later Banker uses elements of his own autobiography to underscore the ways in which East Tennesseans particularly successful urban dwellers often distance themselves from an Appalachian identity This understandable albeit regrettable response Banker suggests diminishes and demeans both the individual and region making stereotypically Appalachian conditions self perpetuating Whether exploring grassroots activism in the Clearfork Valley the agrarian traditions and subsequent displacement of Cades Cove residents or Knoxvillians efforts to promote trade tourism and industry Banker's detailed historical excursions reveal not only a profound richness and complexity in the East Tennessee experience but also a profound interconnectedness Synthesizing the extensive research and revisionist interpretations of Appalachia that have emerged over the last thirty years Banker offers a new lens for constructively viewing East Tennessee and its past He challenges readers to reconsider ideas that have long diminished the region and to re imagine Appalachia And ultimately while Appalachians All speaks most directly to East Tennesseans and other Appalachian residents it also carries important lessons for any reader seeking to understand the crucial connections between history self and place

Helen Matthews Lewis Helen M. Lewis, 2012-04-20 Often referred to as the leader of inspiration in Appalachian studies Helen Matthews Lewis linked scholarship with activism and encouraged deeper analysis of the region Lewis shaped the field of Appalachian studies by emphasizing community participation and challenging traditional perceptions of the region and its people Helen Matthews Lewis Living Social Justice in Appalachia a collection of Lewis's writings and memories that document her life and work begins in 1943 with her job on the yearbook staff at Georgia State College for Women with Mary Flannery O'Connor Editors Patricia D Beaver and Judith Jennings highlight the achievements of Lewis's extensive career examining her role as a teacher and activist at Clinch Valley College now University of Virginia at Wise and East Tennessee State University in the 1960s as well as her work with Appalshop and the Highland Center Helen Matthews Lewis connects Lewis's works to wider social movements by examining the history of progressive activism in Appalachia The book provides unique insight into the development of regional studies and the life of a dynamic revolutionary delivering a captivating and personal narrative of one woman's mission of activism and social justice

Working Stiffs, Union Maids, Reds, and Rifraff Tom Zaniello, 2018-05-31 The revised and expanded edition of Working Stiffs Union Maids Reds and Rifraff offers 350 titles compared to the original edition's 150 The new book is global in scope with examples of labor films from around the world Viewers can turn to this comprehensive annotated guide for films about unions or labor organizations labor history working class life where an economic factor is significant political movements if they are tied closely to organized labor production or the struggle between labor and capital from a top down either entrepreneurial or managerial perspective Each entry includes a critical commentary production data cast list MPAA rating if any suggested related films annotated references to books and websites for further reading and information about availability of films for rental and or purchase This edition addresses both historical and contemporary films and features many more documentaries and hard to find information about agitprop and union financed films Working Stiffs Union Maids Reds and Rifraff An Expanded Guide to Films about Labor features fifty eight production stills and frame enlargements It also includes a greatly expanded Thematic Index of Films Two new sections will help the reader discover labor films in chronological order or by nationality or affiliation with certain cinematic movements To read Tom Zaniello's blog on the cinema of labor and globalization featuring even more reviews visit <http://tzaniello.wordpress.com> Praise for the earlier edition Zaniello has created a useful and far reaching guide with abundant information These are the sorts of films that prove what James Agee wrote in these pages nearly fifty years ago The only movies whose temper could possibly be described as heroic or tragic or both have been made by leftists The Nation Zaniello has done a monumental job identifying the films that should be included in this genre Working Stiffs Union Maids Reds and Rifraff is sorely needed and long overdue Cineaste An engaging and opinionated book Even though mining trucking Jimmy Hoffa and class warfare are the book's major themes what holds the project together is Zaniello's sense of fun and wit Zaniello is a better writer than most major film critics Village Voice Literary Supplement

Seeking Home Leslie Harper Worthington, Jürgen Grandt, 2024-01-12 Appalachian people are frequently depicted as poorly educated whites who isolate themselves in mountain hollows In Seeking Home editors Leslie Harper Worthington and Jürgen E Grandt turn that stereotype upside down by showcasing Appalachia's ethnic diversity through a lively collection of essays discussing fiction poetry letters and songs This distinct collection begins with a personal narrative in which Worthington relates how she discovered her own home through teaching Lee Smith's Fair and Tender Ladies Other essays range from the anticipated Ron Rash Barbara Kingsolver Harriette Simpson Arnow to the unanticipated Charles Frazier's magical realism a Confederate soldier's journals and three different examinations of Afrilachian poets Adding further texture to the collection are essays examining the diversity in Appalachian music including Cherokee song and dance a discussion of Appalachian mining songs and an examination of recording technology and authenticity Seeking Home confirms that just as there are many Souths there are also many Appalachias The region is multifaceted multicultural and all we have to do is be willing to examine the variety LESLIE HARPER WORTHINGTON is the dean of Academic Programs and Services at Gadsden State Community College in Alabama She is the author of Cormac McCarthy and the Ghost of Huck Finn J RGEN E GRANDT is an associate professor of English at the University of North Georgia He is the author of Shaping Words to Fit the Soul The Southern Ritual Grounds of Afro Modernism and Kinds of Blue The Jazz Aesthetic in African American Narrative Appalachian Journal ,2006 A regional studies review Film & Video Finder ,1989 **United Mine Workers Journal** ,2004 **Global**

Mountain Regions Ann Kingsolver,Sasikumar Balasundaram,2018-09-01 No matter where they are located in the world communities living in mountain regions have shared experiences defined in large part by contradictions These communities often face social and economic marginalization despite providing the lumber coal minerals tea and tobacco that have fueled the growth of nations for centuries They are perceived as remote and socially inferior backwaters on one hand while simultaneously seen as culturally rich and spiritually sacred spaces on the other These contradictions become even more fraught as environmental changes and political strains place added pressure on these mountain communities Shifting national borders and changes to watersheds forests and natural resources play an increasingly important role as nations respond to the needs of a global economy The works in this volume consider multiple nations languages generations and religions in their exploration of upland communities responses to the unique challenges and opportunities they share From paintings to digital mapping environmental studies to poetry land reclamation efforts to song lyrics the collection provides a truly interdisciplinary and global study The editors and authors offer a cross cultural exploration of the many strategies that mountain communities are employing to face the concerns of the future Film/AV News ,1975 **Film and Video**
