These three general dimensions should receive attention in a strategy approach with attention to the strengths and opportunities for these three areas could reduce efficiency costs, lower costs in terms, provide more focus on differentiated solutions, and increase the customer satisfaction. These areas are closely related to the strategy and a balanced approach that covers all three areas will reduce risks, maximize efficiency and control costs and will also support the growth of the organization. In addition, these areas should receive attention because they are closely related to the organization's growth and its ability to compete in the market.
