Handbook of Human Rights and Climate Governance Sébastien Duyck, Sébastien Jodoin, Alyssa Johl, 2018-02-15 Over the last decade the world has increasingly grappled with the complex linkages emerging between efforts to combat climate change and to protect human rights around the world The Paris Climate Agreement adopted in December 2015 recognized the necessity for governments to take into consideration their human rights obligations when taking climate action However important gaps remain in understanding how human rights can be used in practice to develop and implement effective and equitable solutions to climate change at multiple levels of governance This book brings together leading scholars and practitioners to offer a timely and comprehensive analysis of the opportunities and challenges for integrating human rights in diverse areas and forms of global climate governance The first half of the book explores how human rights principles and obligations can be used to reconceive climate governance and shape responses to particular aspects of climate change The second half of the book identifies lessons in the integration of human rights in climate advocacy and governance and sets out future directions in this burgeoning domain Featuring a diverse range of contributors and case studies this Handbook will be an essential resource for students scholars practitioners and policy makers with an interest in climate law and governance human rights and international environmental law

Annuaire de la Convention Européenne Des Droits de L'homme, 2017 Coastal State Jurisdiction over Living Resources in the Exclusive Economic Zone Camille

Goodman, 2021-11-15 Under the 1982 United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea coastal States have sovereign rights to explore exploit conserve and manage the living resources of the 200 nautical mile exclusive economic zone EEZ However 40 years after the adoption of the Convention there is still a great deal of uncertainty about the nature and extent of these sovereign rights Coastal State Jurisdiction over Living Resources in the Exclusive Economic Zone examines the ways in which coastal States can exercise authority on the basis of their sovereign rights over living resources in the EEZ Dr Camille Goodman explores the key concepts of fishing and fishing related activities to establish what vessels and which activities can be regulated by coastal States canvasses the criteria and conditions that coastal States can apply as part of regulating foreign access to their resources and considers the regulation of unlicensed foreign fishing vessels in transit through the EEZ Goodman also examines how such regulations can be enforced within the EEZ and the circumstances under which enforcement can take place beyond the EEZ following hot pursuit A review and analysis of the practice of 145 States identifies the contemporary extent of coastal State jurisdiction over living resources in the EEZ and offers a unique fresh perspective on the underlying and enduring nature of that jurisdiction Underpinned by a rigorous examination of the Convention jurisprudence and literature as well as being supported by carefully documented State practice Coastal State

Jurisdiction over Living Resources in the Exclusive Economic Zone proposes a more predictable framework within which to resolve jurisdictional challenges in the EEZ Federal Register, 2013-09 The Spatial and Economic Transformation of Mountain Regions Manfred Perlik, 2019-01-03 Mountain regions are subject to a unique set of economic pressures they act as collective enterprises which have to valorize rare resources such as spectacular landscapes While primarily rural in nature they often border large cities and the development of industries such as hydroelectric power and the rapid development of tourism can bring about sweeping socio economic change and vast demographic alterations The Spatial and Economic Transformation of Mountain Regions describes the socio economic changes and spatial impacts of the last four decades with the transformation of mountain areas held up as an example Much of the real world context draws on the Alps spanning as they do the significant economies of France Italy Germany Switzerland and Austria Chapters address academic discourse on regional development in these mountain areas and suggest alternative approaches to the liberal productivist societal model This book will be essential reading for professionals institutions and NGOs searching for counter models to the existing marketing approaches for peripheral areas It will also be of interest to students of regional development economic geography environmental studies and industrial economics Adopted Texts Council of Europe. Parliamentary Assembly, 2013

Transboundary Marine Spatial Planning and International Law Daud Hassan, Tuomas Kuokkanen, Niko Soininen, 2015-07-16 Marine Spatial Planning MSP is an integrated and comprehensive approach to ocean governance and is used to establish a rational use of marine space and reconcile conflicting interests of its users MSP allows both a high level of environmental protection and a wide range of human activities and emphasizes coordinated networks of national regional and global institutions This book focuses on the framework of international law behind MSP and especially on the transboundary aspects of MSP. It first sets out a general framework for transboundary MSP and then moves on to compare and assess differences and similarities between different regions. Specific detailed case studies include the EU with the focus on the Baltic Sea and North Sea, the Bay of Bengal and Great Barrier Reef in Australia. The authors examine the national and regional significance of MSP from an integrated and sustainable ocean governance point of view. They also show how transboundary MSP can create opportunities and positive initiatives for cross border cooperation and contribute to the effective protection of the regional marine environment.
