Possible content:

- self-actualisation concerns psychological growth, fulfilment and satisfaction in life and is the final stage in Maslow's hierarchy of needs
- psychological issues are thought to arise as a direct result of conditions of worth, which are constraints an individual believes are put upon them by significant others that they deem necessary to gain positive regard
- Rogers believed that therapists should provide clients with unconditional positive regard to help resolve conditions of worth and guide clients towards self-actualisation, focusing on the authentic self.

Possible discussion:

- discussion of research evidence which supports the role of conditions of worth, eg Harter et al. (1996)
- comparison of conditions of worth with alternative explanations of psychological issues, eg genetics/neurochemistry/psychodynamic theories, etc
- discussion regarding methodology and lack of scientific evidence for self-actualisation/conditions of worth with most studies utilising qualitative methods and rejecting scientific methodology
- counterarguments about the strengths of rich qualitative data and validity/discussion of Q-sort
- discussion of the oversimplification of self-actualisation and conditions of worth, eg it does not explain self-destructive behaviours, pessimism, etc
- discussion of real world application – counselling
- discussion of ethics of providing unconditional positive regard
- discussion of cultural differences.
