and individual lenses and use case studies from the Global North and South

Policing and Boundaries in a Violent Society Guy Lamb, 2022-01-31 This book explores how social and territorial boundaries have influenced the approaches and practices of the South Africa Police Service SAPS. By means of a historical analysis of South Africa, this book introduces a new concept, police frontierism, which illuminates the nature of the relationships between the police, policing, and boundaries and can potentially be used for future case study research. Drawing on a wealth of research, this book examines how social and territorial boundaries strongly influenced police practices and behaviour in South Africa and how social delineations amplify and distort existing police prejudices against those communities on the other side of the boundary. Focusing on cases of high density police operations, public order policing, and the recent policing of the COVID 19 lockdown, this book argues that poor economic conditions combined with an increased militarisation of the SAPS and a decline in public trust in the police will result in boundaries continuing to fundamentally inform police work in South Africa. This book will be of interest to scholars and students interested in policing in post colonial societies characterised by high levels of violence as well as police work and police militarization.

A Regional Perspective on the Post-2015 United Nations Development Agenda United Nations. Economic and Social Commission for Western Asia, 2013 In September 2011, the Secretary General requested Under Secretary General for Economic and Social Affairs and the Administrator of the United Nations Development Programme UNDP to establish a core group of dedicated senior technical experts to coordinate system wide preparations on ongoing efforts and propose a unified vision and road map for the definition of a United Nations development agenda post 2015 in consultation with all stakeholders. As a result of this request, the United Nations System Task Team on the Post 2015 United Nations Development Agenda UNTT was established and launched in January 2012. UNTT is co chaired by the United Nations Department of Economic and Social Affairs DESA and UNDP and is composed of more than 60 entities of the United Nations system, including all the Regional Commissions. Its terms of reference include the formulation of a system wide vision and road map to contribute to the global debate on the post 2015 United Nations development agenda. In June 2012, UNTT issued a report to the Secretary General entitled Realizing the Future We Want for All. The report identifies a future vision based on the core values of human rights, equality, and sustainability and proposes to reorganize a post MDG framework along four dimensions: i) inclusive social development, ii) inclusive economic development, iii) environmental sustainability, and iv) peace and security. The report concludes by stressing the need to develop a post 2015 agenda that responds to people's aspirations through clear, easy to communicate goals that will help guide coherent policy action at the global, regional, and national levels. The present report is designed to make a regional contribution to that global policy debate, including by identifying practical difficulties in achieving such policy coherence at different levels.

Police Integrity in South Africa Sanja Kutnjak Ivkovich, Adri Sauerman, 2020-04-29 Policing in South Africa has gained notoriety through its extensive history of oppressive law enforcement. In 1994, as the country's apartheid system was replaced with a democratic order, the new government faced the significant challenge of transforming the South African police force into a democratic police agency the South African Police Service SAPS that would provide unbiased policing to all the country s people More than two decades since the initiation of the reforms it appears that the SAPS has rapidly developed a reputation as a police agency beset by challenges to its integrity This book offers a unique perspective by providing in depth analyses of police integrity in South Africa It is a case study that systematically and empirically explores the contours of police integrity in a young democracy Using the organizational theory of police integrity the book analyzes the complex set of historical legal political social and economic circumstances shaping police integrity A discussion of the theoretical framework is accompanied by the results of a nationwide survey of nearly 900 SAPS officers probing their familiarity with official rules their expectations of discipline within the SAPS and their willingness to report misconduct The book also examines the influence of the respondents race gender and supervisory status on police integrity Written in a clear and direct style this book will appeal to students and scholars of criminology policing sociology political science as well as to police administrators interested in expanding their knowledge about police integrity and enhancing it in their organizations
