Efficient Information Searching on the Web Jonas Fransson, 2010-05 Information searching on the Web has become part of our everyday life. Efficient Information Searching on the Web deals with different aspects which are important to become a better searcher. To search for information is one of the most common occupations on the Web. We do it for work for studies and in our spare time. We search for information about illnesses far away countries or spare parts for the car. The Web is an important source of information no matter if you are a journalist a student a university researcher or a teacher. Everybody can become more effective when it comes to searching for information. Central matters of the book are: How does a search engine work? How may the search services be used more efficiently? What is the invisible Web? How can the information be managed once it is found?

The New Community Rules Tamar Weinberg, 2009-07-08 This book offers crucial advice and strategies for marketing products and services on today's social web with case studies on what really works and what doesn't.
