Using iPhones, iPads, and iPods Matthew Connolly, Tony Cosgrave, 2014-10-28 Apple Inc has sold more than 500 million iPhones, iPads and iPod Touches. Library patrons are increasingly coming to libraries with the expectation that their Apple devices will work flawlessly with library services or that they can find an iPad to use at the library if they don't have one of their own. Libraries and librarians today are expected to be adept with the latest technology and to be able to apply it to popular use as well as scholarly research. Using iPhones and iPads: A Practical Guide for Librarians offers library professionals a clear path to Apple readiness. The authors, a librarian and a software developer at a prominent research library, combine their experience in library public services and mobile technology to provide easy to follow step by step instructions to help you get up to speed on ensuring that your library website and online resources are iDevice friendly. Creating a custom app for your library and making it available in iTunes. Starting an iPad lending program. Using iDevices for librarianship and library work. Assessing and advertising iDevice programs. Acquiring, configuring and deploying iDevices to users. Recommended apps that can help you and your users. Whether you work at a large academic institution or a small public library, this book will show you how to become iDevice literate quickly and easily.

Cyber Muslims Robert Rozehnal, 2022-04-21 Through an array of detailed case studies, this book explores the vibrant digital expressions of diverse groups of Muslim cybernauts: religious clerics and Sufis, feminists and fashionistas, artists and activists, hajj pilgrims and social media influencers. These stories span a vast cultural and geographic landscape from Indonesia, Iran and the Arab Middle East to North America. These granular case studies contextualize cyber-Islam within broader social trends: racism and Islamophobia, gender dynamics, celebrity culture, identity politics and the shifting terrain of contemporary religious piety and practice. The book's authors examine an expansive range of digital multimedia technologies as primary texts. These include websites, podcasts, blogs, Twitter, Facebook, Instagram, YouTube channels, online magazines and discussion forums and religious apps The contributors also draw on a range of methodological and theoretical models from multiple academic disciplines including communication and media studies anthropology history global studies religious studies and Islamic studies

Usage and Potential of Language Learning Apps Luca Diehl, 2020-03-16 Bachelor Thesis from the year 2019 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Linguistics grade 1.3 University of Trier language English abstract The goal of this thesis is to find out how often language learning apps are already used and to analyze their potential for the upcoming years i.e. whether they might be able to supplement or even replace traditional language classes one day The study presented in this thesis consists of two parts an analysis of the term language learning app their user numbers and their teaching methods in order to be able to find their strengths and weaknesses and a survey conducted among students of the University of Trier in which they were asked about their past usage of language learning apps as well as their attitudes and opinions towards language learning apps in general including their opinions about the potential of language learning apps Not long ago mobile phones were only a means of communication and it was hard to imagine that one day they could fulfil literally hundreds of tasks Today thanks to mobile apps they can be a map a book a video game and even a spirit level all at once One of their most valuable new features though are educational apps They allow users to learn anything from coding to chemical elements to languages and have been changing the educational landscape ever since Language learning apps have been especially disruptive No other type of educational apps is used as often as they are Today apps like Duolingo and Babbel have more than 100 million active users with their numbers increasing by the day They offer courses in languages from Spanish to Hawaiian and are no longer limited to vocabulary teaching only
