

ATI pediatrics proctored exam

Chapter 1: Family centered nursing care

1. Parenting styles

-Dictatorial or authoritarian:

- Parents try to control the child's behaviors and attitudes through unquestioned rules and expectations
- Ex: The child is not allowed to watch television on school nights

-Permissive:

- Parents exert little or no control over the child's behaviors, and consult the child when making decisions
- Ex: The child assists with deciding whether he will watch television

-Democratic or authoritative:

- Parents direct the child's behavior by setting rules and explaining the reason for each rule setting
- Ex: The child can watch television for 1 hr on school nights after completing all of his homework and chores
- Parents negatively reinforce deviations from the rules
- Ex: The privilege is taken away but later reinstated based on new guidelines

Our study guides are carefully designed to provide only that clear and concise information you need. That's precisely why we put Clear Concise on our cover. The standard for the study guide industry is to throw in the kitchen sink when it comes to making a book meaning you are stuck with hundreds of pages of repetitive information, redundant and confusing examples, and more practice questions than any person could be expected to work through. This results in students feeling overwhelmed, leading to reduced self-confidence which leads to lower scores. Instead, Miller Test Prep has worked specifically with tutors. Why tutors you ask? Tutors specialize in helping students comprehend information that has already been presented by a teacher. That means they see time and again what students struggle with and what actually works to help them. They specialize in helping students who have previously failed to succeed.
