The Marriage Medallion:

THE MARRIAGE MEDALLION Christine Rimmer, Misao Hoshiai, 2015-01-01 He's going to be my husband Princess Brit is forced to marry to preserve the royal bloodline so she flees the palace and heads for the distant North Sea. But on the way there her plane crashes and she is thrown against the steep cliffs. She's hurt and terrified. As if in answer to her pleas for help a dark shadow appears. Is he the legendary black knight? No it's Eric Greyfell. He's as beautiful as a hero from Norse myth but his heart is as impenetrable as a stone statue. And he's the man she was expected to marry. Four Days, Five Nights

Christine Rimmer, Christine Flynn, 2003 The Marriage Medallion Christine Rimmer, 2010-05-01 When I next see this medallion it will be around the neck of my betrothed. With those words originally uttered by his father Prince Eric Greyfell dismissed Brit Thorson's theory about the mysterious medallion she thought she was given for luck. But she knew he was correct. For the man who stood before her was not only her temptation he was her destiny. Eric knew that Brit was the woman he was destined to spend eternity with. Now if he could just put an end to her incessant questions. For she was sure that she had seen him with her dead brother Prince Valbrand a man whose status Eric had vowed never to reveal. But someday soon Eric would be making a different kind of promise to Brit one that would have to take precedence over all other vows. Beale Paris mus. du Louvre, 1883 Heroic Hearts Jennifer J. Popiel, 2021-06 Heroic Hearts examines how young women in nineteenth century France authorized by a widespread cultural discourse that privileged individual authority over domesticity and marriage sought to change the world. Jennifer J. Popiel offers a recuperative reading of sentimental authority especially in its relationship to religious vocabulary. Heroic Hearts uncovers the ways sentimental appeals authorized women to trust themselves as modern actors for a project of cultural restoration. With their emphasis on sacrifice and heroism these cultural currents offered liberatory potential. Heroic Hearts examines not only general cultural currents but their adoption by particular women each of whom was privileged with access to money and social influence. The words of three extraordinary women Philippine Duchesne, Pauline Jaricot and Zélie Martin offer powerful testimony to their agency. These women's rejection of traditional domesticity believed to be a formative influence for their class demonstrates how women understood the imperative to change the world outside of their natural families. Their writings which demonstrate the appeal of sentimental virtue show us how women's public lives could exist not
