Gender, Citizenship, and Identity in the Indian Blogosphere Sumana Kasturi, 2019-08-28 This book examines the role of women bloggers in the Indian Blogosphere. It explores how women use new media technologies to create online spaces that share knowledge, raise awareness, and build communities. A unique work at the intersection of digital culture, feminist theory, and diaspora/transnationalism studies, this book brings to light layered and complex issues such as identity, gender performativity, presentation of self, migration, and citizenship. This volume will be useful for scholars and researchers of cultural studies, political studies, gender studies, women's studies, sociology, diaspora studies, feminist theory, media and communication studies.

Who Do You Think You Are Emmanuel Upputuru, 2023-07-10 At the age of 33, Emmanuel Upputuru, India's hottest creative person, finds himself frustrated by physical injuries that have begun to cage his body. He embarks on a journey of self-discovery that unveils a shocking truth about his very existence: his identity was stolen from him before he ever set foot on this earth. The probe leads him to a scene of robbery and murder in a garden and to a place of skull in Jerusalem where a war was waged on his behalf by a lamb with a mission to restore his original identity. But what was Emmanuel's original identity? Are we just our bodies? How do we cope with physical pain? What are the three core fears of mankind? How can we be born again? These are some of the questions Emmanuel seeks to answer in his book Who Do You Think You Are. Written over a period of eighteen years using anecdotes from the advertising and cricket world, Emmanuel offers a radical take on the complex subject of Man's Identity. Who Do You Think You Are is an urgent book for a broken world. It can help us discover our true identity. Armed with this identity, we can respond to conflicts better and conquer ourselves even as the world around us continues to trigger, troll, fight, divorce, and threaten to nuke itself.

Food Beyond Terroir Anna Colquhoun, Katharina Graf, 2025-10-01 From winemaking in occupied territories to fishing in polluted seas, home cooking in refugee communities, and vegan cheesemaking, this collection explores the complex ways taste and place intersect with political, ecological, social, and economic issues. Through diverse ethnographic case studies, leading food scholars examine the meaning and making of place and taste. In doing so, the book challenges terroir-inspired notions of a fixed taste of place and pushes the boundaries of what we think we know about taste-place relations.

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Indian Cuisine Colleen Taylor Sen, Sourish Bhattacharyya, Helen Saberi, 2023-02-23 This reference work covers the cuisine and foodways of India in all their diversity and complexity, including regions, personalities, street foods, communities, and topics that have been often neglected. The book starts with an overview essay situating the Great Indian Table in relation to its geography, history, and agriculture, followed by alphabetically organized entries. The entries, which are between 150 and 1,500 words long, combine facts with history, anecdotes, and legends. They are supplemented by longer entries on key topics such as regional cuisines, spice mixtures, food and medicine, rites of passages, cooking methods, rice, sweets, tea, drinks, alcoholic and soft, and the Indian diaspora. This comprehensive volume illuminates contemporary Indian cooking and cuisine in tradition
