Cook, Jane Breinholt, 1974 Engendering Curriculum History Petra Hendry, 2011-05-20 Disrupting dominant notions of history as linear as inevitable progress and as embedded in the individual this book examines how curriculum history can be re envisioned from a feminist poststructuralist perspective The Other American Colonies Ediberto Román, 2006 The Other American Colonies is a thorough and thoughtful examination of the extent of this country s overseas expansionism Exploring the post Spanish American War as well as the post World War II island acquisitions it illustrates how despite its own anti colonial beginnings this country became and remains the world s largest overseas territorial power BOOK JACKET Teaching Girls Peter

Kuriloff, Shannon Andrus, Charlotte Jacobs, 2017-12-01 Women continue to be underrepresented in the high paying fields of science math and engineering They receive only about 80% of the salary of men holding similar jobs in any field and still face glass ceilings that limit their attainment How do we educate and empower girls to surmount these barriers and succeed throughout their lives This unique book reveals the kinds of teaching that engages girls intellectually fosters their creativity and bolsters their confidence Drawing on descriptions of great lessons written by nearly 2 000 students and teachers it offers a practical accessible guide to anyone who wants to find better ways to help young women succeed The authors review the special qualities of lessons that resonate with girls and show how they meet their developmental needs throughout adolescence They also show how vital it is that such teaching happen within schools that help students learn about the numerous ways that gender affects girls development The authors conclude by detailing how school leaders can create cultures that support this kind of great learning and teaching The Elementary School Library Collection, Phases 1-2-3

, 1992 The Elementary School Library Collection Lauren K. Lee, 1992 Life and Story D. John Lee, 1994 Narrative psychology proceeds from the assumption that understanding human experience and behavior necessarily involves reviewing the relevant historical and cultural contexts in which they occur This book is an argument for and example of narrative psychology It contains an autobiographical essay by Theodore Sarbin a duography by Mary and Kenneth Gergen and a teleography by George Howard and nine other life stories by people whose scholarship has reflected a contextualist or narrative root metaphor Psychologists will find these essays useful to the interpretation of contemporary theories and research focused on narrative scripts and discourse processing This anthology will also be interesting to students of autobiographical memory and biography because of the conscious reflexivity expressed in the essays and comments by each of the contributors on the effects of writing one's life story Projects with the Indigenous Peoples of Paraguay ,1980
