focuses on how elementary and secondary educators might teach about the pandemic both as a contentious public issue and as a recent historical event. The second section asks teachers to reconsider many long standing aspects of social studies teaching and learning from content and instructional approaches to testing. Book Features Guidance on how to teach about the COVID 19 crisis as a recent controversial historical event. Examples of teaching approaches and classroom projects that align with the C3 Framework Lessons about COVID 19 for use in K 12 classrooms as well as chapters on the history of pandemics and on how teachers can help students cope with death and grief. A critical examination of the idea of American exceptionalism the role of race and class in U S society and fundamental practices within social studies education.
