Wunderlich, 2020-10-15 Embedded in the evolving comparative regionalism literature this book offers a systematic analysis of the factors positively and negatively influencing regional institution building The ruptures caused by the Eurozone crises the coronavirus pandemic and by Brexit have renewed the interest in the impact of crises and critical junctures on regionalism here defined as regional institution building Drawing from critical juncture research and historical comparative analysis this volume uses the cases of European and East Asian regional institution building to systematically analyse institutional transformations during specific historical turning points and critical juncture moments Wunderlich s research offers an in depth analysis of the interrelated drivers spoilers and dissolvers of regional institution building processes in Europe and East Asia and addresses key questions including Under what conditions does regionalism take hold What is influencing the initial institutional design choices What is the impact of historical experiences and well entrenched norms and ideas What are the roles of regional leaders How do external factors influence regional institution building What turns a crisis into a critical juncture and are such junctures threats or opportunities What accounts for variations in institutional responses to crisis events across different regional settings This book will be a valuable resource for scholars of regionalism region building regional governance and international relations of Europe and East Asia Diverse Narratives and Shared Beliefs

Soumya Awasthi, 2025-06-27 This book delves into the intricate tapestry of Deoband Islam in India Pakistan and Afghanistan Challenging simplistic narratives it unveils the nuanced reality of Deoband Islam revealing a diverse range of perspectives within the movement It illuminates the movement s historical social and philosophical dimensions It explores the movement s relationship with societal transformation and communal identity and its impact on the geopolitical dynamics of South Asia The book offers a distinctive perspective on the Deoband school of thought in Islam by systematically categorising it into three distinct regional variants each reflecting the unique socio political context of its environment The focus is on the Deoband school of thought a strand within Sunni Islam that adheres to the philosophical framework of Ashari Maturidi Critically examining its teachings uncovers the complexities and contradictions that shape Deobandi s thought challenging popular assumptions and providing a fresh understanding It also highlights the voices of Deobandi scholars and organisations who unequivocally denounce terrorism and actively work to counter radicalisation Acknowledging their efforts the book underscores the potential for dialogue and cooperation in promoting peace and understanding With its comprehensive approach and thought provoking analysis this book is essential for scholars policymakers political science departments theology sociology international relations security studies and South Asian studies The Art of Neighbouring Martin

Saxer,J. Zhang,2025-10-01 For the nations on its borders the rapid rise of China represents an opportunity but it also brings worry especially in areas that have long been disputed territories of contact and exchange This book gathers contributors from a range of disciplines to look at how people in those areas are actively engaging in making relationships across the border and how those interactions are shaping life in the region and in the process helping to reconfigure the cultural and political landscape of post Cold War Asia The Other Side of the Security Coin Nicholas Farnham,Stephan De

Spiegeleire,Tim Sweijs,2017-02-20 The presence of peace is more than the absence of conflict Analyses and evaluations of the state of the international security environment often focus solely on the most concerning developments and tend to fall back on various conflict centric metrics when providing assessments of a given security landscape This chapter entitled The Other Side of the Security Coin investigates a number of positive socioeconomic trends occurring on a global level and how they can contribute to sustainable peace in the future Improving citizens access to socioeconomic opportunities and livelihood enhancing goods and services is a key factor in increasing the stake that citizens hold in the state of peace in their communities Fitting within global trends such as the rise of the platform economy and social media the role of technological and developmental processes improving individual empowerment will become more important for security and defense organizations in the near future As to how we can leverage the dramatic changes ongoing throughout the world to better suit our security objectives remains yet to be seen This study provides a brief overview of these trends and identifies the options for security and defense organizations to remain on top of them This study is part of the 2016 2017 HCSS StratMon
