Consumer Involvement in Private EU Competition Law Enforcement Maria Ioannidou, 2015-09-03 Despite the growing importance of consumer welfare in EU competition law debates there remains a significant disconnect between rhetoric and reality as consumers and their interests still play only an ancillary role in this area of law Consumer Involvement in Private EU Competition Law Enforcement is the first monograph to exclusively address this highly topical and much debated subject providing a timely and wide ranging examination of the need for more active consumer participation in competition law Written by an expert in the field it sets out a comprehensive framework of policy implications and arguments for greater involvement positioning the debate in the context of a broader EU law perspective It outlines pragmatic approaches to remedial and procedural measures that would enable consumer empowerment Finally the book identifies key institutional and political obstacles to the adoption of effective measures and suggests alternative routes to enhance the role of consumers in private competition law enforcement The book s innovative approach combining normative analysis and practical solutions make it invaluable for academics policy makers and practitioners in the field

Uganda International Monetary Fund. African Dept., 2013-12-30 This paper discusses Uganda s First Review Under the Policy Support Instrument PSI Growth has continued to recover from the 2011 2012 low In an environment of declining inflation recently halted by a drought driven food price shock the fiscal stimulus has been successful in driving economic activity and a planned program of infrastructure investment is expected to boost growth further The external accounts remain sustainable The current account deficit declined mainly owing to a temporary slowdown of foreign direct investment related imports With satisfactory program performance IMF staff supports completing the first PSI review and increasing the ceiling on nonconcessional borrowing
