Domesticating a Religious Import Nicholas M. Creary,2011 Catholic theologians have developed the relatively new term inculcation to discuss the old problem of adapting the church universal to specific local cultures Europeans needed a thousand years to inculcate Christianity from its Judaic roots Africans efforts to make the church their own followed a similar process but in less than a century Until now there has been no book length examination of the Catholic church's pastoral mission in Zimbabwe or of African Christians efforts to inculcate the church Ranging over the century after Jesuit missionaries first settled in what is now Zimbabwe this enlightening book reveals two simultaneous and intersecting processes the Africanization of the Catholic Church by African Christians and the discourse of inculcation promulgated by the Church With great attention to detail it places the history of African Christianity within the broader context of the history of religion in Africa This illuminating work will contribute to current debates about the Catholic Church in Zimbabwe and throughout Africa

AF Press Clips ,1981      Regime and Education in Zimbabwe Bekithemba Dube,Albert Mufanechiya,2024-06-10 This collection focuses on the post independence educational development in Zimbabwe It shows how the ZANU PF regime has presided over the demise of education and covers a wide range of topics such as violence against teachers poor salaries student activism minority languages and curriculum innovations This volume argues that the regime has used education as a tool for repression Curriculum innovations introduced and implemented in Zimbabwe have little to do with improving the performance of the learners and more to do with stopping teachers from pushing the regime change agenda Consequently this has resulted in a nation in crisis marked with high turnover poor economy and mass exodus of teachers and learners The contributors to this volume make various suggestions which could recenter education towards addressing the experiences of the learners as opposed to being used as a tool to push repression and thwart democracy context and interpretations of history which led to the much discussed Zimbabwean political and economic crisis Socio economic policies that shape and continue to shape the complex livelihoods of the Zimbabwean people are also attributed to current and future conditions The author argues that within the Zimbabwean situation these contributors and their counters have not encouraged the prioritization of the needs of the most vulnerable population groups but rather that they have a tendency to hinder their general well being by limiting fundamental resources such as access to basic necessities freedoms affirmation of communalism and individuality Through the narratives of the Zimbabwean people Professor Moyo highlights some of the acute strategies they and their families have used to survive as a way to explore future policy avenues that take into account people's agentiveness the capacity to overcome unfavorable conditions by utilizing what little resources are available Zimbabwe's greatest asset Moto ,1999 The Arts of Africa ,1990 Beacham's Guide to Environmental Issues & Sources Walton Beacham,1993
