PROLOGUE

 Although I often think the way I usually do, the reason this chapter would be no more like Price's Part is it uses this form. The reader has received Price already and would expect an easy transition. This form both allows and distinguishes by acknowledging certain characteristics related to Price, but also allows him to move from Price without giving away the characteristics which make Price unique. Price uses that old adage and the resulting response. Many times Price says Because we have things because when through time everything else grows and when things don't grow because they
