French in Action Pierre J. Capretz, Barry Lydgate, Béatrice Abetti, Marie-Odile Germain, 2015-06-28 Since it was first published French in Action A Beginning Course in Language and Culture The Capretz Method has been widely recognized in the field as a model for video based foreign language instructional materials The third edition revised by Pierre Capretz and Barry Lydgate includes new contemporary illustrations throughout and in the Documents section of each lesson more relevant information for today's students A completely new feature is a journal by the popular character Marie Laure who observes and comments humorously on the political cultural and technological changes in the world between 1985 and today The new edition also incorporates more content about the entire Francophone world In use by hundreds of colleges

Untea, Micáela Symington, 2015-02-05 The contributors to this volume encourage a re thinking of the very notion of culture by examining the experiences situations and the representations of those who chose or were forced to change cultures from the nineteenth century to the present day Beyond a simple study of migration forced or otherwise this collective work also re examines the model of integration As recent entrants into new social settings may be perceived as affecting the previously accepted social equilibrium mechanisms encouraging or inhibiting population flows are sometimes put in place From this perspective integration may become less a matter of internal choice than an external obligation imposed by the dominant political power in which case integration may only be a euphemism for cultural uniformity The strategies of cultural survival developed as a reaction to such a rising tide of cultural uniformity can be seen as necessary points of departure for an ever growing shared multiculturalism A long term voluntary commitment to make cultural boundaries more flexible and allow a more engaged individual participation in the process of defining the self and finding its place within a culture in movement
