18 Volume 81 2014:

Cyprus in the Long Late Antiquity Panayiotis Panayides, Ine Jacobs, 2023-01-24 Cyprus was a thriving and densely populated late antique province. Contrary to what used to be thought the Arab raids of the mid seventh century did not abruptly bring the island's prosperity to an end. Recent research instead highlights long lasting continuity in both urban and rural contexts. This volume brings together historians and archaeologists working on diverse aspects of Cyprus between the sixth and eighth centuries. They discuss topics as varied as rural prosperity, urban endurance, artisanal production, civic and private religion, and maritime connectivity. The role of the imperial administration and of the Church is touched upon in several contributions. Other articles place Cyprus back into its wider Mediterranean context. Together they produce a comprehensive impression of the quality of life on the island in the long late antiquity.

Dual Markets

Ernesto U. Savona, Mark A.R. Kleiman, Francesco Calderoni, 2017-11-14 This comprehensive volume analyzes dual markets for regulated substances and services and aims to provide a framework for their effective regulation. A dual market refers to the existence of both a legal and an illegal market for a regulated product or service, for example prescription drugs. These regulations exist in various countries for a mix of public health, historical, political and cultural reasons. Allowing the legal market to thrive while trying to eliminate the illegal market provides a unique challenge for governments and law enforcement. Broken down into nine main sections, the book studies comparative international policies for regulating these dual markets from a historical, legal and cultural perspective. It includes an analysis of the markets for psychoactive substances that are illegal in most countries such as marijuana, cocaine, opioids and amphetamines, psychoactive substances which are legal in most countries and where consumption is widespread such as alcohol and tobacco, and services that are generally regulated or illegal such as sports betting, the sex trade and gambling. For each of these nine types of markets, contributions focus on the relationship between regulation, the emerging illegal market and the resulting overall access to these services. This work aims to provide a comprehensive framework from a historical, cultural and comparative international perspective. It will be of interest to researchers in criminology and criminal justice, particularly with an interest in organized crime, as well as related fields such as sociology, public policy, international relations and public health.

In The Collapse of Parenting, internationally acclaimed author Leonard Sax argues that rising levels of obesity, depression, and anxiety among young people can be traced to parents abdicating their authority. The result is children who have no standard of right and wrong who lack discipline and who look to their peers and the Internet for direction Sax shows how parents must reassert their authority by limiting time with screens by encouraging better habits at the dinner table and by teaching humility and perspective to renew their relationships with their children Drawing on nearly thirty years of experience as a family physician and psychologist along with hundreds of interviews with children parents and teachers Sax offers a blueprint parents can use to help their children thrive in an increasingly complicated world Ninth Census-volumes Francis A .....
