

Requesting a reference

Referees should not be family members, partners or friends.

If you graduated in the last 5 years, or you do not yet have a grade for your degree, choose at least one academic referee.

If you're applying for a salaried course, one of your references must be from an employer.

You can use one character reference if you also have a professional or academic reference.

Get more tips on choosing your referees.

Contact your referee

Your referee will receive a link to an online form to complete.

Contact your referee in advance to check that they can:

- type or paste their reference into an online form, with a 500-word limit (some referees can only send references by email, but these are not accepted)
- submit a reference quickly, so as not to delay your application
- give you a full reference – providers need to know if you're suitable to become a teacher
