The Allure of the Ancient Margaret Geoga, John Steele, 2022-02-14 The Allure of the Ancient investigates how the ancient Middle East was imagined and appropriated for artistic scholarly and political purposes in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Bringing together scholars of the ancient and early modern worlds the volume approaches reception history from an interdisciplinary perspective asking how early modern artists and scholars interpreted ancient Middle Eastern civilizations such as Egypt Babylonia and Persia and how their interpretations were shaped by early modern contexts and concerns The volume s chapters cross disciplinary boundaries in their explorations of art philosophy science and literature as well as geographical boundaries spanning from Europe to the Caribbean to Latin America Contributors are Elisa Boeri Mark Darlow Nirit Ben Aryeh Debby Florian Ebeling Margaret Geoga Diane Greco Josefowicz Andrea L Middleton Julia Prest Felipe Rojas Silva Maryam Sanjabi Michael Seymour John Steele and Daniel Stolzenberg Allure of the Incomplete, Imperfect, and Impermanent Rumiko Handa, 2014-12-17 Architects have long operated based on the assumption that a building is complete once construction has finished Striving to create a perfect building they wish for it to stay in its original state indefinitely viewing any subsequent alterations as unintended effects or the results of degeneration The ideal is for a piece of architecture to remain permanently perfect and complete This contrasts sharply with reality where changes take place as people move in requirements change events happen and building materials are subject to wear and tear Rumiko Handa argues it is time to correct this imbalance Using examples ranging from the Roman Coliseum to Japanese tea rooms she draws attention to an area that is usually ignored the allure of incomplete imperfect and impermanent architecture By focusing on what happens to buildings after they are complete she shows that the afterlife is in fact the very life of a building However the book goes beyond theoretical debate Addressing professionals as well as architecture students and educators it persuades architects of the necessity to anticipate possible future changes and to incorporate these into their original designs The Publishers' Circular and General Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1888 The Allure of Empire Chris Suh, 2023 The Allure of Empire traces how American ideas about race in the Pacific were made and remade on the imperial stage before World War II Following the Russo Japanese War the United States cultivated an amicable relationship with Japan based on the belief that it was a progressive empire akin to its own Even as the two nations competed for influence in Asia and clashed over immigration issues in the American West the mutual respect for empire sustained their transpacific cooperation until Pearl Harbor when both sides disavowed their history of collaboration and cast each other as incompatible enemies In recovering this lost history Chris Suh reveals the surprising extent to which debates about Korea shaped the politics of interracial cooperation American recognition of Japan as a suitable partner depended in part on a positive assessment of its colonial rule of Korea It was not until news of Japan s violent suppression of Koreans soured this perception that the exclusion of Japanese immigrants became possible in the United States Central to these shifts in opinion was the cooperation of various Asian elites aspiring to inclusion in a progressive American empire By examining how Korean Japanese and other nonwhite groups appealed to the United States this book demonstrates that the imperial order sustained itself through a particular form of interracial collaboration that did not disturb the existing racial hierarchy     The Allure of Chanel Paul Morand,2013-05-17 The story of Coco Chanel in her own words as told by her to Paul Morand Told in her own words Coco Chanel s memories offer a rare glimpse into the mind of one of the most influential women in fashion history During a visit to St Moritz at the end of World War II Chanel shared intimate details of her life loves and fashion philosophy with her life long friend Paul Morand Only coming to light after Chanel s death her intimate recollections reveal the secrets behind her success and the captivating charm that made her a true icon     The Athenaeum ,1893     The Christian Union Henry Ward Beecher,1883     Outlook Alfred Emanuel Smith,Francis Walton,1888     Torch and Colonial Book Circular ,1889     Publications of the Edinburgh Bibliographical Society: Papers, 1890-95. 1896 Edinburgh Bibliographical Society,1896     The London Quarterly Review William Lonsdale Watkinson,William Theophilus Davison,1874     The Journal of Education ,1893     The Publishers Weekly ,1893     The Academy ,1872     Bookseller & Stationer ,1900     City and State Herbert Welsh,1897     Publications of the Edinburgh Bibliographical Society Edinburgh Bibliographical Society,1896     Publishers' Weekly ,1893     The Literary World ,1899     Monthly musical record ,1891
