The Man Who Murdered Admiral Darlan Bénédicte

Vergez-Chaignon, 2023-07-31 In November 1942 Anglo American forces landed in French North Africa which soon afterwards broke with Marshal Pétain's Vichy regime in France and re-entered the war on the Allies' side. On Christmas Eve the high commissioner Admiral François Darlan was assassinated in Algiers. Why? Like the press and public opinion in Britain and America General Charles de Gaulle's Free French movement and the resistance in France were appalled that the Allies had allowed Darlan to retain office even though as prime minister under Pétain he had previously advocated military collaboration with Nazi Germany. Few mourned Darlan's death; many were relieved, some were jubilant. His killer was Fernand Bonnier de la Chapelle. Who was this twenty-year-old and what drove him to murder? Bénédicte Vergez-Chaignon paints a sympathetic portrait of the young idealist manipulated by local resistance leaders. As she tells Bonnier's story, the author illuminates the imbroglio of North Africa's competing political forces. She traces Bonnier's short life, the assassination, his court-martial and execution within 48 hours, the subsequent judicial investigations which became bogged down in the complex rivalry between the Allies, the remnants of the Vichy regime, the Resistance and other factions. The story ends with Bonnier's posthumous rehabilitation and recognition as a member of the French Resistance. Bonnier's biography reads like an absorbing novel with its twists and turns, reconstructed dialogue and author's acute observations. As well as being a tragic human story, it is an illuminating study of the convoluted political context of the affair which will be unfamiliar to some Anglophone readers. It is an academically rigorous piece of original research based in part on previously inaccessible family archives. The book has been translated into English by Richard Carswell. Bénédicte Vergez-Chaignon's story of Darlan's assassination was received in France as a shocking book and a historian's great work. Le Patriote R. Sistant a detailed enquiry bordering on a detective novel which brings out the conspiratorial atmosphere reigning in Algiers in the wake of the Allied landing of 8 November 1942. Le Monde des Livres it shows the extent to which the 1940s were years of complete ambiguity. Le Figaro Littéraire Bénédicte Vergez-Chaignon, a meticulous historian, paints the portrait of a young idealist dying to wash away the stain of defeat.

Midi Libre Mission France Kate Vigurs, 2021-01-01 The full story of the thirty-nine female SOE agents who went undercover in France. Formed in 1940, Special Operations Executive was to coordinate Resistance work overseas. The organization's F-section sent more than four hundred agents into France, thirty-nine of whom were women. But while some are widely known, Violette Szabo, Odette Sansom, Noor Inayat Khan, others have had their stories largely overlooked. Kate Vigurs interweaves for the first time the stories of all thirty-nine female agents. Tracing their journeys from early recruitment to work undertaken in the field to evasion from or capture by the Gestapo, Vigurs shows just how greatly missions varied. Some agents were more adept at parachuting. Some agents' missions lasted for years, others less than a few hours. Some survived, others were murdered. By placing the women in the context of their work with the SOE and the wider war, this history reveals the true extent of the differences in their abilities and attitudes while underlining how they nonetheless shared a common mission and ultimately deserve recognition

Derivative Images Calum Watt, 2022-02-03 Focused on French cultural responses to the 2008 global financial crisis in cinema literature and theory Derivative Images offers detailed analyses of post 2008 French language works including Les Effondres 2010 Le Grand Retournement 2013 and L Outsider 2016 to show how they appropriate and reconfigure notions at the heart of the crisis such as derivatives financial trading and markets Drawing on ideas from thinkers such as Jonathan Beller Yves Citton and Peter Szendy this book shows how derivatives can be taken as a conceptual resource for thinking about creative practice and the circulation of audio visual images today

Churchill's Guests Robert W. Allen,2003-03-30 When the Belgian exiles arrived in 1940 the British considered them and especially their leaders to be unhelpful ingrates Individual exiles soon made firm friends but it would take longer for the exile government to improve its public image This study provides a comprehensive look at a wartime partnership from the perspective of the junior partner detailing the evolution of relations from awkward tolerance in 1940 to full teamwork that lasted from 1942 through 1945 Typical accounts of the Second World War concentrate on the economic exploits and resources of the Big Three while glossing over the role of other nations Allen presents a truer picture of the Allied war effort as a cooperative coalition that depended on more than just America Britain and Russia British respect was partially earned through the strong economic power of Belgium's large gold reserve and the varied resources of the huge Belgian Congo Differences with the British occurred over the control of links to the Resistance food relief to Belgium and propaganda The Belgian experience has enough in common with other large exile groups to provide readers a reasonable grasp of the overall contribution to British life and the war effort by the exiles as a group The personal bonds and patterns of cooperation forged in wartime London would help create vital postwar military and economic organizations Churchill's War David John Cawdell Irving,1987 La diplomatie secrète au XVIIIe siècle Émile Bourgeois,1909 Musée des familles ,1880
