The Unexpected Spy Tracy Walder,Jessica Anya Blau,2020-02-25

A highly entertaining account of a young woman who went straight from her college sorority to the CIA where she hunted terrorists and WMDs Reads like the show bible for Homeland only her story is real Alison Stewart WNYC A thrilling tale Walder's fast paced and intense narrative opens a window into life in two of America's major intelligence agencies Publishers Weekly starred review When Tracy Walder enrolled at the University of Southern California she never thought that one day she would offer her pink beanbag chair in the Delta Gamma house to a CIA recruiter or that she'd fly to the Middle East under an alias identity The Unexpected Spy is the riveting story of Walder's tenure in the CIA and later the FBI In high security steel walled rooms in Virginia Walder watched al Qaeda members with drones as President Bush looked over her shoulder and CIA Director George Tenet brought her donuts She tracked chemical terrorists and searched the world for Weapons of Mass Destruction She created a chemical terror chart that someone in the White House altered to convey information she did not have or believe leading to the Iraq invasion Driven to stop terrorism

Walder debriefed terrorists men who swore they'd never speak to a woman until they gave her leads. She followed trails through North Africa, Europe and the Middle East, shutting down multiple chemical attacks. Then Walder moved to the FBI, where she worked in counterintelligence. In a single year, she helped take down one of the most notorious foreign spies ever caught on American soil. Catching the bad guys wasn't a problem in the FBI, but rampant sexism was. Walder left the FBI to teach young women encouraging them to find a place in the FBI, CIA, State Department or the Senate and thus change the world.

In Jawbreaker, Gary Berntsen, until recently one of the CIA's most decorated officers, comes out from under cover for the first time to describe his no-holds-barred pursuit of Osama bin Laden and al Qaeda. With his unique mix of clandestine knowledge and paramilitary training, Berntsen represents the new face of counterterrorism. Recognized within the agency for his aggressiveness, Berntsen, when dispatched to Afghanistan, made annihilating the enemy his job description. As the CIA's key commander coordinating the fight against the Taliban forces around Kabul and the drive toward Tora Bora, Berntsen not only led dozens of CIA and Special Operations Forces, he also raised 2,000 Afghan fighters to aid in the hunt for bin Laden. In this first-person account of that incredible pursuit, which actually began years earlier in an East Africa bombing investigation, Berntsen describes being ferried by rickety helicopter over the towering peaks of Afghanistan, sitting by General Tommy Franks's side as heated negotiations were conducted with Northern Alliance generals, bargaining relentlessly with treacherous Afghan warlords and Taliban traitors plotting to save hostages about to be used as pawns, calling in B-52 strikes on dug-in enemy units, and deploying a dizzying array of Special Forces teams in the pursuit of the world's most wanted terrorist. Most crucially, Berntsen tells of cornering bin Laden in the Tora Bora mountains and what happened when Berntsen begged Washington to block the al Qaeda leader's last avenue of escape. As disturbingly eye-opening as it is adrenaline charged, Jawbreaker races from CIA war rooms to diplomatic offices to mountaintop redoubts to paint a vivid portrait of a new kind of warfare, showing what can and should be done to deal a death blow to freedom's enemies.

CIA Commander Gary Berntsen on His eyebrow-raising style:

Most CIA Case Officers advanced their careers by recruiting sources and producing intelligence. I took a more grab them by the neck approach. I operated on the principle that it was easier to seek forgiveness than ask for approval. Take risks but make sure you're successful. Success, not good intentions, would determine my fate. Doing whatever it took, I didn't just want to survive, I wanted to annihilate the enemy. And I didn't want to end up like one of my favorite historical characters, Alexander Burns. He was one of the first of more than 14,000 British soldiers to be wiped out by the Afghans in the First Afghan War. Like Burns before me, I was also an intelligence officer and spoke Persian. This was my second trip into Afghanistan, too. The difference I told myself was that Burns had been a gentleman and I would do whatever it took to win. Dealing with a Taliban official who controlled American hostages? Tell him that if he betrays me or loses the hostages, I'll spend every waking moment of my life hunting him down to kill him. Tell him I'm not like any American he has ever met. The capabilities of his Tora Bora spotter team. Working nonstop.

the four men directed strike after strike by B 1s B 2s and F 14s onto the al Qaeda encampment with incredible precision Somehow through the massive bureaucracy thousands of miles of distance and reams of red tape the U S had managed to place four of the most skilled men in the world above the motherlode of al Qaeda with a laser designator and communications system linked to the most potent air power in history As I listened over our encrypted radio network one word kept pounding in my head revenge Also available as a Random House AudioBook
