International Trade and Food Security Floor Brouwer, P K Joshi, 2016-07-08 This book explores structural changes in India's agrifood systems during the next ten to twenty years. The dynamics in the agrifood sector is explored in the context of the overall economy taking into account agricultural and trade policies and their impacts on national and global markets. The contributors draw on qualitative and quantitative approaches using both a national model to focus on urban rural relations and income distribution and an international model to focus on patterns of economic growth and international trade.

Agricultural Development and Food Security in Africa Renu Modi, Fantu Cheru, 2013-08-08 The subject of food security and land issues in Africa has become one of increased importance and contention over recent years. In particular the focus has shifted to the role new global South donors especially India, China and Brazil are playing in shaping African agriculture through their increased involvement and investment in the continent. Approaching the topic through the framework of South South co-operation this highly original volume presents a critical analysis of the ways in which Chinese, Indian and Brazilian engagements in African agriculture are structured and implemented. Do these investments have the potential to create new opportunities to improve local living standards, transfer new technology and knowhow to African producers and reverse the persistent productivity decline in African agriculture? Or will they simply aggravate the problem of food insecurity by accelerating the process of land alienation and displacement of local people from their land? Topical and comprehensive. Agricultural Development and Food Security in Africa offers fresh insight into a set of relationships that will shape both Africa and the world over the coming decades.
