Agricultural Science Paper For November 2014:

Agriculture, development, and the global trading system: 2000– 2015 Bouët, Antoine, Laborde Debucquet, David, 2017-09-07 This book is devoted to the complex relationship between the global trading system and food security focusing on two important elements the Doha Development Agenda DDA and how food price volatility can be managed or not through trade instruments The first section of the book is based on the premise that more trade integration can fight poverty and alleviate hunger The second section examines whether managing price volatility is doable through more or less trade integration This section deals in particular with policy instruments available for policy makers to cope with price volatility food stocks crop insurance and export restrictions Analysis concludes that without a strong and efficient World Trade Organization WTO capable of conducting ambitious trade negotiations the food security target will be much more difficult to hit

Governing Agricultural Sustainability Phil Macnaghten, Susana Carro-Ripalda, 2015-06-26 Although GM crops are seen by their advocates as a key component of the future of world agriculture and as part of the solution for world poverty and hunger their uptake has not been smooth nor universal they have been marred by controversy and all too commonly their regulation has been challenged as inadequate even biased This book aims to understand these dynamics examining the impacts of GM crops in diverse contexts and their potentials to contribute to sustainable agricultural futures Part 1 draws on research from three global rising powers Brazil India and Mexico exploring the views of scientists farmers and publics Using a diverse array of ethnographic and qualitative methodologies the book examines the dynamics that have underpinned the controversy in three diverse geo political contexts the manner in which dominant institutional framings have been closely aligned with the interests of powerful elites and the multiple ways in which these have been resisted through local symbolic and material practices Part 2 comprises a series of short comment pieces from 11 leading social and natural scientists responding to the question of how to develop a policy framework for the responsible innovation of sustainable culturally appropriate and socially just agricultural GM technologies This innovative book offers new insights for researchers and postgraduates in Science and technology studies Agro ecology and Environmental Studies Development studies Anthropology Human Geography Sociology Political Science Public Administration Latin American studies and Asian studies

Conservation Agriculture in Subsistence Farming Catherine Chan, Jean Fantle-Lepczyk, 2015-06-16 Conservation agriculture systems have long term impacts on livelihoods agricultural production gender equity and regional economic development of tribal societies in South Asia This book presents South Asia as a case study due to the high soil erosion caused by monsoon rainfall and geophysical conditions in the region which necessitate conservation agriculture approaches and the high percentage of people in South Asia relying on subsistence and traditional farming The book takes an interdisciplinary approach to analyse systems at scales ranging from household to regional and national levels

The Indian Journal of Agricultural Sciences, 2018

The future of food and agriculture: Trends and challenges Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations,2018-06-08 How can we achieve FAO s original vision of a world free from hunger and malnutrition The report sheds some light on the nature of the challenges that agriculture and food systems are facing now and throughout the 21st century and provides some insights as to what is at stake and what needs to be done What emerges is that business as usual is no longer an option but calls for major transformations in agricultural systems in rural economies and in how we manage our natural resources The report was undertaken for the quadrennial review of the FAO Strategic Framework and in preparation for the Organization s Medium Term Plan 2018 2021 Food Security

Governance Nora McKeon,2014-12-17 This book fills a gap in the literature by setting food security in the context of evolving global food governance Today s food system generates hunger alongside of food waste burgeoning health problems massive greenhouse gas emissions Applying food system analysis to review how the international community has addressed food issues since World War II this book proceeds to explain how actors link up in corporate global food chains and in the local food systems that feed most of the world s population It unpacks relevant paradigms from productivism to food sovereignty and highlights the significance of adopting a rights based approach to solving food problems The author describes how communities around the world are protecting their access to resources and building better ways of producing and accessing food and discusses the reformed Committee on World Food Security a uniquely inclusive global policy forum and how it could be supportive of efforts from the base The book concludes by identifying terrains on which work is needed to adapt the practice of the democratic public sphere and accountable governance to a global dimension and extend its authority to the world of markets and corporations This book will be of interest to students of food security global governance development studies and critical security studies in general A Social Science Assessment of Conservation

Practices in the Red River Basin of Minnesota Amit Pradhananga,Vanessa Perry,Mae A. Davenport,2014 Law and Regulation of Mobile Payment Systems Joy Malala,2017-11-28 Over the last ten years mobile payment systems have revolutionised banking in some countries in Africa In Kenya the introduction of M Pesa a new financial services model has transformed the banking and financial services industry Giving the unbanked majority access to the financial services market it has attracted over 18 million subscribers which is remarkable given that fewer than 4 million people in Kenya have bank accounts This book addresses the legal and regulatory issues arising out of the introduction of M Pesa in Kenya and its drive towards financial inclusion It considers the interaction between regulation and technological innovation with a particular focus on the regulatory tools institutional arrangements and government decisional processes through the examination as a whole of its regulatory capacity This is done with a view to understanding the regulatory capacity of Kenya in addressing the vulnerabilities presented by technological innovation in the financial industry for consumers after financial inclusion It also examines the way that mobile payments have been regulated by criticising the piecemeal approach that the Central Bank of Kenya has taken in addressing the legal and regulatory issues presented by mobile payments The book argues there are significant gaps in the regulatory regime of mobile banking in Kenya White Paper on Science and Technology ,2015
