Agnes Morrogh Bernard Foundress Of Foxford Woollen Mills:

Agnes Morrogh-Bernard Margaret Molloy (Librarian),2014 In 1892 hunger poverty and desolation were endemic in the area around Foxford in County Mayo in the aftermath of the great famine and the Land War It was in this context that Agnes Morrogh Bernard a member of the Irish Sisters of Charity achieved what many thought was impossible She was a pioneering and visionary woman who in a male dominated society managed to establish the world famous Foxford Woollen Mills which to this day provide an important source of employment to the surrounding area This is her incredible story She lived through a time spanning the 19th and early 20th centuries 1842 1932 a time of strife and unrest emigration and eviction Into this mix this woman brought hope where there was despair light where there was darkness and joy where there was once sadness She also had absolute trust in Providence which was her bastion in this quest Her story is a fascinating one whether you are familiar with the area or not Agnes Morrogh-Bernard, 1842-1932 Bernie Joyce,2014 Mná Na Héireann Nicola

Depuis,2009 From Queen Medbh to Mary McAleese Constance Markiewicz to Nell McCafferty this is a collection of profiles of women who have shaped Ireland For too long when people discuss Irish heroes and important figures only men have been cited Mn na hireann addresses that tendency and offers an impressive array of women who have brought change and progress to Ireland From the mythical era through the Middle Ages the Plantation the Famine the struggle for independence and the early years of the state right up to the twenty first century Mn na hireann profiles over 50 formidable Irish women

The Fairies Who Lost Their Powers Margaret Molloy,2022-12-16 The fairies sit together in the glen where they devise a plan to restore power to some of the fairies who have lost theirs It is not going to be an easy task so careful planning is called for Sonya the leader of the group outlines what has happened to the fairies Some have lost their sparkle some their skip others their jumping skills and some have lost their ability to flip She knows whose help is needed to restore these powers Georgie Grasshopper Sammy Seal Skippy the Kangaroo and the fairies Melanie Glenda and Rosie will be asked to help Sylvie Simone and Fay These are good friends and Sonya knows they will gladly help out Losing their powers is something the fairies do not like and they will be ever so grateful to their friends for helping them Sometimes all it takes to make things right is a little help from friends The world looks a brighter place for all when this happens Wealth of Persons Fr. John McNerney,2016-08-31 Thomas Piketty s Capital in the Twenty First Century initiated a great debate not just about inequality but also regarding the failures found in the economic models used by theoreticians and practitioners alike Wealth of Persons offers a totally different perspective that challenges the very terms of the debate The Great Recession reveals a great existential rift at the core of certain economic reflections thereby showing the real crisis of the crisis of economics In the human sciences we have created a kind of Tower of Babel where we cannot understand each other any longer The breakdowns occur equally on the personal social political and economic levels There is a need for an about face in method to restore harmony among dissociated disciplines Wealth of Persons offers a key to such a restoration applying insights and analysis taken from different economic scholars schools of thought philosophical traditions various disciplines and charismatic entrepreneurs Wealth of Persons aims at recapturing an adequate understanding of the acting human person in the economic drama one that measures up to the reality The investigation is a passport allowing entry into the land of economic knowledge properly unfolding the anthropological meaning of the free economy

Irish Catholic identities Oliver P. Rafferty, 2015-06-01 What does it mean to be Irish Are the predicates Catholic and Irish so inextricably linked that it is impossible to have one and not the other Does the process of secularisation in modern times mean that Catholicism is no longer a touchstone of what it means to be Irish Indeed was such a paradigm ever true These are among the fundamental issues addressed in this work which examines whether distinct identity formation can be traced over time The book delineates the course of historical developments which complicated the process of identity formation in the Irish context when by turns Irish Catholics saw themselves as battling against English hegemony or the Protestant Reformation Without doubt the Reformation era cast a long shadow over how Irish Catholics would see themselves But the process of identity formation was of much longer duration Newly available in paperback this work traces the elements which have shaped how the Catholic Irish identified themselves and explores the political religious and cultural
