The Winds of History Andreas Zeman, 2023-10-24 Based on extensive archival research in six countries and intensive fieldwork the book analyzes the history of the village of Nkhlongue on the eastern Mozambican shores of Lake Malawi from the time of its formation in the 19th century to the present day The study uses Nkhlongue as a microhistorical lens to examine such diverse topics as the slave trade the spread of Islam colonization subsistence production counter insurgency decolonization civil war ecotourism and matriliney Thereby the book attempts to reflect as much as possible on the generalizability and global comparability of local findings by framing analyses in historiographical discussions that aim to go beyond the regional or national level Although the chapters of the book deal with very different topics they are united by a common interest in the social history of rural Africa in the longue dur e Contrary to persistent clichés of rural inertia in Africa the book as a whole underscores the profound changeability of social conditions and relations in Nkhlongue over the years and highlights how people's room for maneuver kept changing as a result of the Winds of History the frequent and often violent ruptures brought to the village from outside

Global Land Grabs Marc Edelman, Carlos Oya, Saturnino M. Borrás Jr., 2016-03-22 Since the 2008 world food crisis a surge of land grabbing swept Africa Asia and Latin America and even some regions of Europe and North America Investors have uprooted rural communities for massive agricultural biofuels mining industrial and urbanisation projects Water grabbing and green grabbing have further exacerbated social tensions Early analyses of land grabbing focused on foreign actors the biofuels boom and Africa and pointed to catastrophic consequences for the rural poor Subsequently scholars carried out local case studies in diverse world regions The contributors to this volume advance the discussion to a new stage critically scrutinizing alarmist claims of the first wave of research probing the historical antecedents of today s land grabbing examining large scale land acquisitions in light of international human rights and investment law and considering anew longstanding questions in agrarian political economy about forms of dispossession and accumulation and grassroots resistance Readers of this collection will learn about the impacts of land and water grabbing the relevance of key theorists including Marx Polanyi and Harvey the realities of China s involvement in Africa how contemporary land grabbing differs from earlier plantation agriculture and how social movements and rural people in general are responding to this new threat This book was published as a special issue of Third World Quarterly The SAGE Sourcebook of Service-Learning and Civic Engagement Omobolade
