Gener, Jason Richard Tan, 2023-03-31 The Lord's Prayer unites Christians throughout history speaking across the divides of language place and tradition The oldest prayer of the church it continues to speak to the lived reality of believers around the world while inviting the body of Christ into a deeper understanding of the nature of God discipleship and the calling to holistic mission Ama Namin brings together the voices of Filipino evangelical scholars in a profound work of contextual and biblical theology Each chapter explores a portion of the Lord's Prayer against the backdrop of Scripture and the foreground of Philippine life and spirituality Contributors examine the rich history of the Lord's Prayer in the Philippines a history dating back to the first printed translation in 1593 as well as its implications for the Philippines future providing the church a foundation for public engagement and social transformation Ama Namin provides a valuable teaching resource for the Philippine church and for all those longing to deepen their understanding of prayer the contextualization of Scripture and the love of the heavenly Father

Virtual Communion Katherine G. Schmidt, 2020-05-22 Virtual Communion Theology of the Internet and the Catholic Sacramental Imagination provides a theological account of the internet from a Catholic perspective It engages digital culture by providing a context for media and mediation within the Catholic tradition specifically focusing on the ecclesiology and sacramentality of the church Katherine G Schmidt argues that the Catholic imagination is inherently consonant with the idea of the virtual understood as the creative space between presence and absence bringing the fields of media studies internet studies sociology history and theology together in order to give a theological account of the social realities of American Catholicism in light of digital culture Overall Schmidt argues that the social possibilities of the internet afford the church great opportunity for building a social context that allows the living out of Eucharistic logic learned in properly liturgical moments

Arcana Coelestia Emanuel Swedenborg, 1882 Challenges of Pharmacoconomics in Global Health Arena Mihajlo (Michael) Jakovljevic, Nick Verhaeghe, Kyriakos Souliotis, 2019-03-01 The pace of globalization has significantly accelerated since the end of the Cold War Era in 1989 These changes profoundly affected health care systems worldwide Health policy makers increasingly started facing new harsh challenges in their uneasy task to provide universal health coverage and decent equity of access to medical services Among the most prominent demand side issues are extended longevity joined with population aging rise of non communicable diseases and growing patient expectations Supply side causes are gains in societal welfare and living standards technological innovation in medicine and continuing rapid urbanization in developing world regions Successful insurance based risk sharing agreements made drug dispensing and medical service provision cheap or virtually free at the point of consumption in most OECD and many middle income countries Coupled with massive build up of workforce capacities and strengthening of primary care and hospital networks all these factors contributed to the supplier induced demand phenomenon There is straightforward historical evidence of long term growth in pharmaceutical and overall health spending both in absolute and GDP% terms worldwide The accumulated constraints deriving from skyrocketing costs of care were felt in many areas of clinical medicine even among the richest societies Cardinal examples of expensive and hardly affordable therapeutic areas are orphan drugs indicated to treat rare diseases and targeted biologicals used in autoimmune disorders and cancer Last but not least is troubled and frequently denied access to even essential generic pharmaceuticals still taking place in many nations This appears to be particularly the case among the world's poor and under served citizens residing in rural and suburban areas of low and middle income countries To a large extent these difficulties are worsened by lack of evidence based resource allocation strategies and less sustainable financing strategies The Metaphysics of Light in Hexaemeral Literature Isidoros C. Katsos, 2023 This volume critically re evaluates the received interpretation of the nature of light in the ancient sources The view that vision had priority over light is rejected in favour of a luminocentric reading of philosophical and theological cosmology in late antiquity Handbook of Military Psychology Stephen V.
