Students will begin their day with a quick “check-in”, saying their name and one thing they’re looking forward to. Next, they will be introduced to the first challenge. Groups consist of mixed ages, allowing students to learn from one another. Challenges include math, science, and reading. Groups will be introduced and assigned to their groups. Groups will have time to plan their project. Groups will be given a time limit to complete their project. If students need more time, they can request it. Groups will present their project to the class. Groups will receive a “check-in” sheet. Once all students have completed their projects, the teacher will bring out a “Summer STEM Project” checklist. Once all students have completed their projects, the teacher will bring out a “Summer STEM Project” checklist.
