Accounting Clients On Tap:

Accounting Clients on Tap James Molfetas,2015-03-07 If you have ever wanted to be able to get your ideal clients to approach you and to be able to do this at will then you are going to love this book This book will teach you how to create a simple online system to attract your ideal clients on autopilot This allows you to grow your practice at your own pace For example you may decide that you want five new clients this month You simply turn the system on and as soon as you have got your five clients you shut it down temporarily so that you can bed down these new clients into your practice Then when you feel that you can cope with more clients again you just turn the tap back on until the next batch of clients have flooded in to your practice The best part is that the results are predictable This offers supreme peace of mind knowing that you can grow your practice at will
