An Age of Accountability John L. Rury, 2023-10-13 An Age of Accountability highlights the role of test based accountability as a policy framework in American education from 1970 to 2020. For more than half a century the quest to hold schools and educators accountable for academic achievement has relied almost exclusively on standardized assessment. The theory of change embedded in almost all test based accountability programs held that assessment with stipulated consequences could lead to major improvements in schools. This was accomplished politically by proclaiming lofty goals of attaining universal proficiency and closing achievement gaps which repeatedly failed to materialize. But even after very clear disappointments no other policy framework has emerged to challenge its hegemony. The American public today has little confidence in institutions to improve the quality of goods and services they provide especially in the public sector. As a consequence many Americans continue to believe that accountability remains a vital necessity even if educators and policy scholars disagree.

Sheet Music of the Confederacy Robert I. Curtis, 2024-04-03 The creation of the Confederate States of America and the subsequent Civil War inspired composers, lyricists and music publishers in Southern and border states and even in foreign countries to support the new nation. Confederate imprint sheet music articulated and encouraged Confederate nationalism honored soldiers and military leaders, comforted family and friends and provided diversion from the hardships of war. This is the first comprehensive history of the sheet music of the Confederacy. It covers works published before the war in Southern states that seceded from the Union and those published during the war in Union occupied capitals, border and Northern states and foreign countries. It is also the first work to examine the contribution of postwar Confederate themed sheet music to the South's response to its defeat, to the creation and fostering of Lost Cause themes and to the promotion of national reunion and reconciliation.
