Isan Writers, Thai Literature Martin B. Platt, 2013-08-20 Regional characteristics and regional language feature prominently in discussions of Thai identity but there is little mention of regional literatures In northeastern Thailand's Isan region authors write primarily in Thai but it is possible nonetheless to identify an Isan literature which played a significant and at times pivotal role in the development of Thai literature in the second half of the twentieth century as authors grappled with how their origins and experiences related to the Thai centre Martin Platt's account of Isan literature is an important first step toward a broader study of regional literatures in Thailand and shapes a model that has relevance for examining literary works in other Asian countries

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts.

The Secret History is a exceptional and suspenseful novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
