The Oxford Handbook of Sovereign Wealth Funds Douglas Cumming, Geoffrey E. Wood, Igor Filatotchev, Julianne Reinecke, 2017 Sovereign Wealth Funds have become increasingly powerful and influential investors. Their increasing role and unusual character as both political and market actors raise a number of issues with regard to finance, politics, regulation and international business. This handbook draws together the growing but fragmented research on SWFs. Public-Private Partnership and Policy Uncertainty Weijie Luo, 2025-12-12 This book aims to explore the investment decision making of private enterprises from the perspective of policy uncertainty in the process of cooperation between the government and social capital. The vitality of private capital is an important means of promoting economic development and expanding social employment. This book includes the following contents: taking the investment willingness of private enterprises as the analysis unit based on institutional theory, resource dependence theory, enterprise behavior theory, etc., systematically constructing a theoretical framework of policy uncertainty, investment confidence, enterprise investment, explores the connotation and internal causes of the uncertainty of PPP policy and constructs a central and prefecture level city policy uncertainty text thesaurus measurement system and quantitative indicators, explores the impact of policy uncertainty on investor confidence and the adaptability of private enterprise operations and analyzes the constraint or promoting effects of innovation vitality and industrial structure on policy uncertainty, explores the spatial spillover effect of local PPP policy uncertainty on private enterprise investment. This book tests the hypothetical relationship between policy uncertainty, investment confidence and private enterprise investment based on policy texts, PPP listed company information and identifies key factors affecting private enterprise cooperative investment. This has important academic value for enriching institutional theory, expanding PPP research and has significant theoretical and practical value for promoting social capital investment and stimulating the vitality of private enterprises. In addition to students, teachers and researchers in the areas of firm behavior, public economics, public administration and public policy, this book is also of great interest to policy makers, planners and non-government agencies who are concerned with understanding and addressing issues related to the cooperation of government and social capital in developed and developing countries. Handbook of Economic Forecasting Graham Elliott, Allan Timmermann, 2013-08-23 The highly prized ability to make financial plans with some certainty about the future comes from the core fields of economics. In recent years the availability of more data, analytical tools of greater precision and ex post studies of business decisions have increased demand for information about economic forecasting. Volumes 2A and 2B which follows Nobel laureate Clive Granger's Volume 1 (2006) concentrate on two major subjects. Volume 2A covers innovations in methodologies specifically macroforecasting and forecasting financial variables. Volume 2B investigates commercial applications with sections on forecasters' objectives and methodologies. Experts provide surveys of a large range of literature scattered across applied and theoretical statistics journals as well as econometrics and empirical economics journals. The

Handbook of Economic Forecasting Volumes 2A and 2B provide a unique compilation of chapters giving a coherent overview of forecasting theory and applications in one place and with up to date accounts of all major conceptual issues Focuses on innovation in economic forecasting via industry applications Presents coherent summaries of subjects in economic forecasting that stretch from methodologies to applications Makes details about economic forecasting accessible to scholars in fields outside economics

A Comparison of Job Opportunities for Women in Germany and the UK Rieke Hinrichs,2014-06-06 Bachelor Thesis from the year 2013 in the subject Business economics Business Management Corporate Governance grade First Class New College Durham New College Durham Leeds Metropolitan University language English abstract The purpose of this project was to analyse to what extent gender equality has been achieved which barriers still exist in female employment and to evaluate opportunities for women in the UK in comparison to those in Germany The author reviewed a wide array of sources such as studies laws and articles but the main analysis was done on the basis of extensive data that has been collected by the OECD and the World Economic Forum Based on those findings gender gaps concerning labour force participation occupational sectors and types of work as well as wages and pensions were identified for both countries More specifically this paper provides information on the main barriers for women in employment the most important of which are maledominated corporate cultures and discrimination Especially mothers experience barriers like the lack of affordable childcare insufficient flexible working options or the fact that people who use those are disadvantaged as well as unequal contribution of unpaid work and childcare despite laws that allow fathers to participate more in family life During the whole project the applicability of theories such as the Glass Ceiling the Sticky Floor or the Opt Out Revolution has been tested in order to identify reasons for inequality Furthermore measures which have already been taken against the existing barriers were described and some that could be taken in the future were suggested Differences between conditions for women in Germany and the UK have been analysed compared and evaluated with the result that the UK offers slightly better chances but both countries achieve quite different results in particular categories Depending on which aspects a woman puts emphasis on this thesis can help to decide which country is best to live and raise a family in Indovation T.
