Educational Research Rachel McNae,Bronwen Cowie,2017-07-18 Realising Innovative Partnerships in Educational Research examines the underlying principles and actions that support the development of and engagement in partnerships in educational research With social justice at its core the work in this book represents various architectures of innovation whereby new ways of thinking about partnership research are proposed and practices of teaching and learning are reconciled or not with existing education contexts and practices With contributions from educational researchers and practitioners from New Zealand and international commentaries provided by established scholars in the field the book draws together key experiences and insights from students teachers community members and researchers in tertiary community school and early childhood settings The research in this book seeks to address a gap in our understanding extending knowledge beyond simply the benefits of partnership work to examine how successful partnerships can be initiated enacted and sustained over time This book invites reflection on the following provocations Why engage in partnerships for educational research How has this happened in the past and what needs to happen for the future What is unique about the New Zealand context and what might researchers in other countries learn from our collaborative and culturally responsive research methodologies What could be some of the underlying principles that support the development of and engagement in collaborative research How do we evaluate the effectiveness of research partnerships in education to shift the focus to the future

International Aerospace Abstracts ,1997 Globalization Development and Social Justice

Ann El Khoury,2015-03-27 Are there existing alternatives to corporate globalization What are the prospects for and commonalities between communities and movements such as Occupy the World Social Forum and alternative economies Globalization Development and Social Justice advances the proposition that another globalization is not only possible but already exists It demonstrates that there are multiple pathways towards development with social justice and argues that enabling propositional agency rather than oppositional agency such as resistance is a more effective alternative to neoliberal globalization El Khoury develops a theory of infraglobalization that emphasizes creative constitution not just contestation of global and local processes The book features case studies and examples of diverse economic practice and innovative emergent political forms from the Global South and North These case studies are located in the informal social economy and community development as well as everyday practices from prefigurative politics to community cooperatives and participatory planning This book makes an important contribution to debates about the prospects for and practices of a transformative grassroots globalization and to critical debates about globalization and development strategies It will be of interest to students and scholars of international relations globalization social movement studies political and economic geography sociology anthropology and development studies    The Publisher ,1917    British Books ,1915    Books in Series ,1985 Vols for 1980 issued in three parts Series Authors and Titles    House Furnishing Review ,1941    Journal of Developmental Education ,2015    Who's who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges Henry Pettus Randall,1976    Canadian Journal of Physics ,2015    The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1864    Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1917    Metals Abstracts ,1995    National Union Catalog ,1983    Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1991
