Andrew Sayers examines a considerable body of drawings produced by Aboriginal artists between 1803 and 1903 Never before collected as a genre these works are retained in museums libraries or private hands and have rarely been displayed Often regarded as inauthentic art because of their stylistic borrowings and fluctuations they enjoy a unique status as products of the interaction between Aboriginal society and the British colonizers The largest group of drawings comes from the hands of three artists Tommy McCrae c1823 1901 William Barak c1824 1903 and Ulladulla Mickey c1820 1891 who produced their drawings in the 1880s and 1890s Visually these drawings are varied but they possess many of the aesthetic qualities which characterize contemporary Aboriginal art displaying intense vitality and an acute understanding of flora and fauna
