Child Sexual Abuse Reported by Adult Survivors Sinéad Ring, Kate Gleeson, Kim Stevenson, 2022-04-28 Child Sexual Abuse Reported by Adult Survivors is a wide ranging and timely critical history and analysis of legal responses to historical or non recent child sexual abuse NRCSA in England and Wales Ireland and Australia each of which represents an evolving and progressive approach to this important and complex issue The book examines the emergence of NRCSA as a distinctive social political and legal phenomenon in each country and explores the legal responses developed to address its unprecedented challenges Courts and parliaments in each country have reformed existing doctrine and practice and have created new ways of holding state and private actors accountable and new ways of addressing survivors injuries Criminal law tort law public inquiries and state reparations have all been to the forefront of these new legal responses which have transformed law s engagement with NRCSA survivors and understandings of justice itself However despite this undeniable progress the book identifies ways in which the legal responses developed in each country fail to deliver accountability and recognition to NRCSA survivors and argues that such failures betray the law s inherent ambivalence to delivering justice for these survivors Creating new insights into legal responses to this complex contemporary legal social and political problem this book will be of great interest to academic lawyers political scientists and historians as well as those working on related topics in criminology sociology social policy cultural studies and gender studies The Irish Reports, 1898 The Law Reports (Ireland) William Green, 1892 Includes reports from the Chancery Probate Queen s bench Common pleas and Exchequer divisions and from the Irish land commission Annual Report of the Local Government Board for Ireland for the Year ... Ireland. Local Government Board, 1879 Ireland and the Magdalene Laundries Claire McGettrick, Katherine O'Donnell, Maeve O'Rourke, James M. Smith, Mari Steed, 2021-08-12 Between 1922 and 1996 over 10 000 girls and women were imprisoned in Magdalene Laundries including those considered promiscuous a burden to their families or the state those who had been sexually abused or raised in the care of the Church and State and unmarried mothers These girls and women were subjected to forced labour as well as psychological and physical maltreatment Using the Irish State s own report into the Magdalene institutions as well as testimonies from survivors and independent witnesses this book gives a detailed account of life behind the high walls of Ireland s Magdalene institutions The book offers an overview of the social cultural and political contexts of institutional survivor activism the Irish State s response culminating in the McAleese Report and the formation of the Justice for Magdalenes campaign a volunteer run survivor advocacy group Ireland and the Magdalene Laundries documents the ongoing work carried out by the Justice for Magdalenes group in advancing public knowledge and research into Magdalene Laundries and how the Irish State continues to evade its responsibilities not just to survivors of the Magdalenes but also in providing a truthful account of what happened Drawing from a variety of primary sources this book reveals the fundamental flaws in the state s investigation and how the treatment of the burials exhumation and cremation of former Magdalene women remains a deeply troubling issue today emblematic of the system of torture and studious official neglect in which the Magdalene women lived their lives The Authors are donating all royalties in the name of the women who were held in the Magdalenes to EPIC Empowering People in Care The Irish Reports ...
