Kostyantyn Levchuk's research is aimed at studying the process of activity of non-governmental organizations of commodity producers of Ukraine in the context of reforming economic relations. Trade union organizations as the most representative public organizations of workers had to prove to the power structures their position, their vision regarding the ways out of the crisis and further social development. Public organizations operating in the spheres of economy include associations of entrepreneurs, farmers, tenants, employers and private owners. They are the result of self-organization of commodity producers which contributes to increased structuring and self-regulation of the economy. Unlike trade unions, public associations of entrepreneurs faced other tasks which consisted in the formation of corporate interests and awareness of the need to develop their own consistent and comprehensive economic policy. Ihor Belkin's chapter is devoted to trends in the development of educational services under today's conditions. The author pays attention to the dynamics of changes in the educational process under the influence of market relations. Attention is drawn to the key positions of each of the participants in the educational process. The legislative framework of education is analyzed. The content of the final result of the educational process is revealed. Comparative characteristics of the leading higher education institutions of Ukraine and their competitiveness are given. The key trends in the development of the provision of educational services abroad are characterized. Volodymyr Manhora's scientific research is aimed at forming knowledge about the state when teaching the history of Ukraine. The historical methodological aspect of the research has been developed which shows the dynamics of changes in the content of knowledge about the state and the methods of their assimilation in the learning process. According to the author, this is related to the appropriate conditions for the existence of historical and legal education in a specific historical period of the development of society, the development of methodical science and the accumulation of teaching experience. Only on the basis of the analysis of the historical and methodological aspect of this problem, modern achievements of methodical science and teaching practice, it is possible to scientifically justify and experimentally verify the effective method of forming knowledge about the state. Investigating the problem of the formation of the institution of inheritance in Ukraine and the peculiarities of the implementation of inheritance cases in the conditions of martial law, Tamil Manhor examines the controversial aspects of the legal regulation of the relevant legal relations. The introduction of martial law in Ukraine undoubtedly affected all spheres of social relations including inheritance. In this period, questions that previously had only theoretical importance become urgent. In particular, the war and the temporary occupation of certain territories of Ukraine by the enemy significantly affect the exercise of rights by individuals in the field of inheritance law. It is first of all about significant obstacles in the realization of the right to receive inheritance. Because of this, the state must effectively and timely respond to such challenges in order to protect the rights and interests of subjects as well as ensure the stability of property turnover There is no doubt that war is a significant destabilizing factor in the dynamics of property relations Therefore the task of legal doctrine in this extremely difficult period for the state is to develop effective mechanisms for subjects to exercise their inheritance rights for their further regulatory implementation Olga Durach s chapter examines the history of military courts in Ukraine The main reasons that contributed to the liquidation of military courts have been revealed The basic principles of the organization of the work of military courts in Ukraine have been determined Peculiarities and problematic issues of the administration of justice during the period of martial law have been studied and the reasons for the need to resume the work of military courts have been determined Ways to resolve controversial issues regarding the resumption of military courts in Ukraine are proposed Zorislav Makarov explores traditional forms of philosophical determinism in his creative work Significant attention is paid to the reception and transformation of such ancient and medieval philosophical concepts in the synthetic context of Renaissance determinism such as the physics of Aristotle the history of Titus Livius the mystical pantheism of the Neoplatonists and Nicholas of Cusa the magic and astrology of Hermeticism the theological ontology of Aurelius Augustine and Thomas Aquinas The sequence of overcoming medieval dualism in nomology is established from the humanistic mastering of the potential of transcendent powers in legislation by the Renaissance man due to its limitation by the requirements of social and political expediency to the new substantialization of nature in the form of rational principles of its movement and transformations of natural things The content of the collective monograph corresponds to the direction of scientific work of the Department of History of Ukraine and Philosophy of Vinnytsia National Agrarian University The monograph is the result of the initiative topic Research of trends in socio economic development and consolidation of Ukrainian society in the modern history of Ukraine State registration number 0122U001425 The head of the subject is Professor K I Levchuk The monograph uses historicalgenetic method statistical analysis sociological economic legal and pedagogical methods

Armenophobia in Azerbaijan Anzhela Elibegova,Armine Adibekian,2021-06-28 The idea of this book came after the presentation of Azeri hild project which represented a systematized compilation of works by Azerbaijani authors intended for children audiences along with a series of examples of works created by children themselves which gave a clear demonstration of the gap between the real situation in the Azerbaijani society about anything relating to Armenia and the declared tolerance for diversity of cultures and religions Naturally enough we tend to label this hatred as armenophobia often without full awareness of the pivotal role it plays in shaping the ethnic identity of Azerbaijanis such hatred channeled against all that pertains to Armenia stands as the nemesis of their psychological model and fuels the juxtaposition of us vs them which is fraught with repercussions for Azerbaijanis themselves The large archive compiled by the authors of this book a serves as a thesaurus for an analysis of ongoing processes in the Azerbaijani society and b allows building a temporal perspective on three levels by covering the past history current situation and expected ramifications of the armenophobic
