Hijacking History Kathleen Wellman, 2021 Hijacking History analyzes the high school world history textbooks produced by the three most influential publishers of Christian educational materials and their collective effect on students' understanding of the past and its consequences for the present. In assuming that God sanctions fundamentalist positions on social, political, and economic issues, students are led to believe that the ultimate mission of America is to advance evangelical Christianity and capitalism throughout the world with monumental civic ramifications. Daily Graphic Elvis D. Aryeh, 1997-05-02 A Guide to Private Schools Ann Dolin, 2013-10-31 EVERYTHING YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT DC AREA PRIVATE SCHOOLS A guide to the private school admission process. The pros and cons of public and private schools. How many schools to apply to and when to begin the application. How to find the right match for your child's unique learning style. Ann's rules for bettering your chances of acceptance. 94 profiles on DC Area private schools. On the Road to Success, 1991 Independent neighborhood schools are meeting the academic, social, and cultural needs of African American, Hispanic American, Latino American, Native American, and Asian American children when viewed from a broad spectrum of criteria for individual and institutional success. Hundreds of these institutions provide full-time academic programs, usually in inner-city areas. They are called independent neighborhood schools to distinguish them from more traditional private schools. These schools are a response to educational needs not being met by public school systems. This study attempts to fill the information gap about independent schools by focusing on a sample to show their environments and resources as pre-collegiate and pre-employment institutions. Of the 300 neighborhood schools identified, 82 schools (27%) responded to a survey. The 11,068 students in these schools in 1989 represented African American (89%), Hispanic (10%), and Native American (1%) ethnic groups. Neighborhood schools have generally adopted the prevailing curriculum content and textbooks, although most attempt to infuse relevant cultural values, and their students perform well by most measures. Alumni interviewed (n=50) tend to have positive attitudes and have continued their education or found employment. The book includes 15 bar graphs illustrating the findings and 29 tables of study data. Seventeen references are listed. SLD Subject Catalog of the Military Art and Science Collection in the Library of the United States Military Academy United States Military Academy.
