Gold and Gold Mining in Ancient Egypt and Nubia Rosemarie Klemm, Dietrich Klemm, 2012-12-13 The book presents the historical evolution of gold mining activities in the Egyptian and Nubian Desert Sudan from about 4000 BC until the Early Islamic Period 800-1350 AD subdivided into the main classical epochs including the Early Dynastic Old and Middle Kingdoms New Kingdom including Kushitic Ptolemaic Roman and Early Islamic It is illustrated with many informative colour images maps and drawings An up to date comprehensive geological introduction gives a general overview on the gold production zones in the Eastern Desert of Egypt and northern Nubian Sudan including the various formation processes of the gold bearing quartz veins mined in these ancient periods The more than 250 gold production sites presented are described both from their archaeological as far as surface inventory is concerned and geological environmental conditions resulting in an evolution scheme of prospection and mining methods within the main periods of mining activities The book offers for the first time a complete catalogue of the many gold production sites in Egypt and Nubia under geological and archaeological aspects It provides information about the importance of gold for the Pharaohs and the spectacular gold rush in Early Arab times

History of Science and Technology in the Ming Dynasty Li Shi, The book is the volume of History of Science and Technology in the Ming Dynasty among a series of books of Deep into China Histories The earliest known written records of the history of China date from as early as 1250 BC from the Shang dynasty c 1600-1046 BC and the Bamboo Annals 296 BC describe a Xia dynasty c 2070-1600 BC before the Shang but no writing is known from the period The Shang ruled in the Yellow River valley which is commonly held to be the cradle of Chinese civilization However Neolithic civilizations originated at various cultural centers along both the Yellow River and Yangtze River These Yellow River and Yangtze civilizations arose millennia before the Shang With thousands of years of continuous history China is one of the world's oldest civilizations and is regarded as one of the cradles of civilization The Zhou dynasty 1046-256 BC supplanted the Shang and introduced the concept of the Mandate of Heaven to justify their rule The central Zhou government began to weaken due to external and internal pressures in the 8th century BC and the country eventually splintered into smaller states during the Spring and Autumn period These states became independent and warred with one another in the following Warring States period Much of traditional Chinese culture literature and philosophy first developed during those troubled times In 221 BC Qin Shi Huang conquered the various warring states and created for himself the title of Huangdi or emperor of the Qin marking the beginning of imperial China However the oppressive government fell soon after his death and was supplanted by the longer lived Han dynasty 206 BC-220 AD Successive dynasties developed bureaucratic systems that enabled the emperor to control vast territories directly In the 21 centuries from 206 BC until AD 1912 routine administrative tasks were handled by a special elite of scholar officials Young men well versed in calligraphy history literature and philosophy were carefully selected through difficult government examinations China's last dynasty was the Qing 1644-1912 which was replaced by the Republic of China in 1912 and in the mainland by the People's Republic of China in 1949 Chinese history has alternated between periods of political unity and peace and periods of war and failed statehood the most recent being the Chinese Civil War 1927 1949 China was occasionally dominated by steppe peoples most of whom were eventually assimilated into the Han Chinese culture and population Between eras of multiple kingdoms and warlordism Chinese dynasties have ruled parts or all of China in some eras control stretched as far as Xinjiang and Tibet as at present Traditional culture and influences from other parts of Asia and the Western world carried by waves of immigration cultural assimilation expansion and foreign contact form the basis of the modern culture of China

The History of Mining Michael Coulson, 2012-11-12 THE INDUSTRY THAT FORGED THE MODERN WORLD Throughout history metals and raw materials have underpinned human activity So it is that the industry responsible for extracting these materials from the ground mining has been ever present throughout the history of civilisation from the ancient world of the Egyptians and Romans to the industrial revolution and the British Empire and through to the present day with mining firms well represented on the world's most important stock indexes including the FTSE100 This book traces the history of mining from those early moments when man first started using tools to the present day where metals continue to underpin economic activity in the post industrial age In doing so the history of mining methods important events technological developments the important firms and the sparkling personalities that built the industry are examined in detail At every stage as the history of mining is traced from 40 000BC to the present day the level of detail increases in accordance with the greater social and industrial developments that have played out as time has progressed This means that a particular focus is given to the period since the industrial revolution and especially the 20th century A look is also taken into the future in an effort to chart the direction this great industry might take in years to come Many books have been written about mining the majority have focused on a particular metal geographical area mining event or mining personality but The History of Mining has a broader scope and covers all of these essential and fascinating areas in one definitive volume Educational Film/video Locator of the Consortium of University Film Centers and R.R.
